Matthew Ashimolowo, 2008-04 Thoroughly researched and extensively referenced this highly credible work uses evidence from biblical anthropological historical and ancient literature sources dating as far back as 3 000 years ago to support the facts that People of color have a positive history People of color were the first to give structure and order in society Scripture cites Black role models Current issues such as idolatry and slavery have their roots in the practices of ancestors Color was not used as a segregating tool until 300 years ago Racial equality is a truth Black people have different issues

The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sights and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko, 2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa

Hope on the Brink Lewis Brogdon, 2013-05-29 African Americans have always wrestled with hopelessness Yet in the face of hopelessness African Americans fought for hope that America can be a land of equality opportunity and justice The fight for hope has been difficult and has taken a toll on African Americans Today the signs of hopelessness abound in black communities across the nation as an increasing number of leaders express concern about a pervasive problem that they could not identify Beyond the continuing injustices and inequities linked to systemic racism they recognize a growing internal apathy in African Americans This internal apathy is nihilism the embrace of nothingness meaninglessness and internalized oppression Nihilism has been slowly emerging since the 1980s and is the reason there is an increasing number of blacks who turn to defeating and destructive behaviors that only worsen their plight In nihilism's wake leaders and communities are left trying to help people who have turned on themselves and abandoned hope that things can get better The first step toward hope requires an understanding of hopelessness Only then can we step into a world that pushes people to the brink and hope to make a difference Hope on the Brink offers an exploration into this hopelessness

Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade, 2021-06-30 How can expository preaching rooted in a textual analysis of Scripture be effectively utilized in oral cultures In Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A Ajibade engages this challenge directly offering practical techniques for integrating African oral elements such as myths proverbs folklore dance drama poetry and storytelling into preaching that is both biblical and African Alongside numerous examples and tools Ajibade provides a rich overview of the nature of orality the history and development of African preaching and the reason biblical exposition must be central to gospel proclamation He reminds us that it is the word of God incarnated among us that has the power to transform lives and revitalize nations Contextualized expository preaching is not therefore one technique to be utilized among many it is rather the heart of biblical teaching and the future of the African church While contributing significantly to studies in contextualization and homiletics this book is immediately applicable to practitioners especially African preachers and those working in oral contexts

The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa's ethical life and thought

Beyond the Surface Fola Omotoyinbo, 2011-07-07 People have issues The world is absolutely full of them The Bible has an inexhaustible list of them A patriarch who loved prostitutes A General with leprosy Priests who were sons of Belial A brother who slept with his sister A believer who practised sorcery These are more than mere stories that make headlines in the media or what you only read about in the gossip columns They are real issues They happen They are all around us The unusual pattern could go from one generation to another and if unchecked perpetrating destruction until someone stops it And that person could be you On every page of this powerfully moving book Fola Omotoyinbo reminds us of the subterranean issues in our life that many would rather not talk about He has given us a vehicle of emancipation and restoration to let us know that the same God who changed and helped Jacob out of his predicament giving him a clean report is still the same today The God who gave freedom to men and women in the past is still alive today as he has always been He is as powerful as he has always been to put a stop to all that brings reproach and shame to you He alone has the answers to those questions you find hard to ask any man

Tell, 2008 The News, 2008 The Publishers Weekly, 2008 West Africa, 2002 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2002 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 Blacks Only D. S. Mashego, 2015 Tired of Being Black Rodney Jordan, 2012-09-17 Tired of Being Black offers a fresh perspective on the struggles and stereotypes of the black race

from a man who personified most of them growing up and then turned his life around to become a public school teacher a basketball coach and a positive role model to hundreds of students and athletes In his book Jordan draws heavily from his experiences growing up in an urban black neighborhood largely defined by gunshots violence stolen cars teen pregnancy and welfare Raised with two brothers and a sister by a single Mom Rodney disrespected and rebelled against all authority figures in his life eventually finding himself forced out of the house at the age of twelve Jordan was faced with transforming his life or continuing on the path of so many he knew the path to prison With refreshing honesty Tired of Being Black exposes negative stereotypes that black males like the young Rodney Jordan often perpetuate through their actions reactions and lack of actions The books free verse format makes it an easy but powerful read for young men and women of all races who want to understand how cultural perceptions can be formed through the eyes of those looking in from the outside

What Being Black Is, and what Being Black Isn't Jacob Whittingham, 2010 Currently the most powerful man in the world is Barack Obama and the most powerful woman in the world according to many in the media industry is Oprah Winfrey For the first time being black and successful isn't just about being good at singing dancing or running Yet there is a flipside in the UK around 70 per cent of teenagers murdered are black and half of all black families are headed by a single parent Biscuit and Whittingham here take a bold fresh and honest look at the problems and achievements of the black community in Britain and the very definition of being black

I'm Tired of Being Black, Treat Me Like a Human Being Audrey Clausen, 2012-07-01 This book is about making Our generation and the next generation aware of how people of different Ethnic groups want to be treated The simple practice of do on to others as you would like them to treat you

And They Wonder Why It's Hard Being Black Elizabeth Milne, 2012-11-07 When 16 year old boys in the USA choose their own coffins because they know their time on earth is short where do we go from here Young people are increasingly disaffected and sometimes hated by the general public This book aims to educate on the serious consequences of stereotyping Stereotyping is the root cause and foundation for all types of racism bigotry and discrimination and in the worst case scenario can and has led to genocide
