Western Conceptions of the Individual Brian Morris,2024-11-01 This is a comprehensive study of the varying conceptions of the human subject in the Western intellectual tradition Although informed by an anthropological perspective the author draws on material from all the major intellectual disciplines that have contributed to this tradition and offers biographical and theoretical vignettes of all the major Western scholars By scrutinizing the classical texts of the Western tradition he succeeds in delineating the differing conceptions of the human individual which emerge from these writings and gives a guide to the most important ideas in Western cultural traditions

How to Find a Black Cat in a Dark Room Jacob Burak,2017-10-17 An inquiry into what it is about our experiences and cultures that brings out the differences and reveals the similarities in us as human beings in the vein of Malcolm Gladwell and Daniel Kahneman Jacob Burak is on a quest to answer the question are we as human beings who are separated by different cultures and experiences similar or different Through the lens of behavioural studies we see how while our approaches differ and often conflict we all strive for similar things love acceptance power and understanding How to Find a Black Cat in a Dark Room offers the latest scientific studies of human behaviour alongside accessible anecdotes to examine the universal human experiences of comparing ourselves to others the need to belong the urge to achieve and the anxiety and uncertainty of life itself More importantly Burak shows us how in understanding these behavioural patterns we learn that we are actually more alike than we are different that our rivals often make us stronger and that being trusting can help us live longer With his inquisitive nature logical thinking and engaging style Burak examines whether it is destiny or personality that controls our lives through intriguing subjects such as What are the ten rules for happiness that are entirely under our control Why do smart people make stupid mistakes What distinguishes bureaucrats and entrepreneurs What are the psychological differences between liberals and conservatives In what circumstances is it right to surrender our privacy Does it pay to trust people

Literature, Psychoanalysis and the New Sciences of Mind Leonard Jackson, 2014-09-11 At a time when psychoanalysis is attacked by biologists psychologists and literary critics alike this book offers a radical defence Literature Psychoanalysis and the New Sciences of Mind gives a clear introduction to the theories of Freud and Jung the strange linguistic rewriting of Freud by Jacques Lacan It explores the extraordinary variety of ways in which these writings have been applied to literature and literary theory But for the first time they are put in the context of recent biological theories of mind and sexuality

Acorns: Windows High-Tide Foghat Joshua Morris, 2013-01-23 Acorns delineates the future of humanity as a reunification of intellect with the Deep Self Having chosen to focus upon ego established securely by the time of Christ much more beta brain wave development will destroy our species and others which process has already begun We create our own realities through beliefs intents and desires and we were in and out of probabilities constantly Feelings follow beliefs not the other way around

On the Spirit and the Self Jennifer Swan , 2019-05-30 On the Spirit and the Self The Religious Art of Marc Chagall compliments and extends the scholarship surrounding Chagall s place in the History of 20th Century Art as a Religious artist Central to this study is the psychic process of individuation and the ways in which images appear to depict the deeper changes in our collective human existence A new perspective on Chagall s creative output is presented through the application of Jungian theory Jung identifies a separation between the cultural and historical underpinnings of natal faith or creed and the presence of an internal personal spirituality or religious attitude This theoretical approach helps to define Chagall s creative connection to his own natal Hasidic faith whilst clarifying the interiority of his religious experiences on a universal level That creative development may be explored through the visual patterns of sacred transformative imagery is a new approach in Chagallian scholarship elevating two key concepts the Chagallian sacred secular binary and the Chagallian temenos sites Primary source materials reflecting the Artist s voice are illuminated by more than seventy colour reproductions to support the perspective that like Jung Chagall was among the most prolific and significant religious communicators of the 20th Century

highly reliable the MBTI has become the most popular personality indicator in the world an indispensable tool for managers consultants trainers and personal administrators The MBTI is an indicator not a test It is not meant to predict performance analyze abilities categorize or make value judgments It is designed to show and individual s preferences in four areas of life how we see reality how we judge that reality where we go to get our energy for life and how others see our orientation to the world Unfortunately all too often those taking the MBTI sometimes even those administering or interpreting it misunderstand what it measures and what conclusions can be drawn from the results That s where True to Type comes in Written in a simple and straightforward manner by an experienced consultant True to Type helps the reader understand and interpret the MBTI This is a book for those who have taken it and want to know what it means to them Dreams Stephanie Jean Clement,2000-09 A guide to interpreting dreams Petty Tyranny and Soulless Discipline? Claire Hilton,2025-07-01 High expectations for a better world followed the First World War Many changes took place aligned with progress but in England the poorest benefited little from them This was all too evident in the nation s public mental hospitals Patients were their raison d tre yet their experiences show that they sat at the foot of the country s priorities Petty Tyranny and Soulless Discipline places patients at its centre to explore their daily lives including their admission care treatment discharge and after care or death These narratives drawn from a range of primary sources are contextualised in an historical analysis of how and why a mixture of stagnating and changing knowledge attitudes and ideals affected patients experiences The Lunacy Act 1890 underpinned life in the mental hospitals by setting out their organisation regulation and funding A variety of professionals campaigners for reform central government departments local authorities trades unions and voluntary organisations often with competing agendas influenced what happened to patients There was also new medical knowledge from Britain and beyond This book weaves these strands into a coherent whole to reveal the complexity of mental health provision in the past and enable reflection that might inform debate today Dream Analysis, Volume I William McGuire,2021-05-11 While the basis of these seminars is a series of 30 dreams of a male patient of Jung s the commentary ranges associatively over a broad expanse of Jung s learning and experience A special value of the seminar is the close view it gives of Jung s method of dream analysis through amplification The editorial aim has been to preserve the integrity of Jung s text The SAGE Encyclopedia of Theory in Counseling and Psychotherapy Edward S.
