Writing Places William Zinsser, 2009-05-19 Zinsser a teacher at the New School and at the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism leads readers on a journey through all the places where he has done his writing His story begins in 1946 with his first job at the New York Herald Tribune a community of legendary journalists and oddballs Next comes a period of freelance writing for magazines which found the writer and his typewriter perched in many unusual locations He recalls the processes that went into creating the original 1974 edition of his book On Writing Well and revising it to keep pace with changes in the language and culture of America The cast of characters includes Yale presidents actor

Peter Sellers and the gonzo journalist Hunter S Thompson There is no subject index Annotation c2009 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Teachers Who Teach Teachers Tom Russell, Fred Korthagen, 2013-09-13 This is a reflection on the education of teachers written by teacher educators who discuss features of their work and the challenges facing teacher education in the 1990s The book invites the reader to attempt similar analyses of personal practice and development in their own teaching The book deals with the personal development of both new and experienced teacher educators illustrating how strongly teacher educators are influenced by their visions and by the challenge to prove themselves in the university setting In addition the book examines the ways in which teacher educators have acted to promote their own professional development and study their own practices including writing as a tool for reflection a life history approach to self study as well as a study of educative relationships with others and the analysis of a personal return to the classroom Finally it takes a broader look at the professional development of teacher educators and offers a challenge to all teacher educators to consider the tension between rigour and relevance Models for Writers Alfred Rosa, Paul Eschholz, 2012-02-01 It s a simple best selling combination that has worked for thousands of students short accessible essays and helpful thorough writing instruction Models for Writers continues to offer thought provoking selections organized to demonstrate not only the rhetorical patterns that students will use in their own essays but also the elements and language that will make those essays effective This edition offers more coverage of the key elements of academic writing including new strategies for writing a research paper and a section on writing a reflective essay Read the preface Library Journal

Thomas, Joe Kincheloe, 2006-01-01 In a world gone mad with standardized curricula and the degradation of the profession of teaching P L Thomas and Joe Kincheloe attempt to bring sanity back to the discussion of the teaching of some of the basic features of the educational process In Reading Writing and Thinking The Postformal Basics the authors take on the rational irrationality of current imperial pedagogical practices providing readers with provocative insights into the bizarre assumptions surrounding the contemporary teaching of reading writing and thinking The authors are obsessed with producing an accessible book for multiple audiences parents teachers scholars of education that moves beyond critique to a new domain of the social and educational imagination Readers of Thomas and Kincheloe s book embark on a mind trip beginning with what is and moving to the realm of what could be In this context they introduce readers to a critical theory of thinking postformalism that moves the social and educational conversation to a new terrain of individual and social consciousness Tired of the same educational policies and solutions in the teaching of reading writing and thinking the authors become socio psychic explorers who move readers past the boundaries of contemporary pedagogical perception
