Kaiser, Timothy O'Leary, 2022-03-01 The Ends of Critique re-examines the stakes of critique in the 21st century In view of increasingly complex socio-political realities and shifts in a fully globalized world the roles and manners of critique also change The volume offers an unprecedented re-examination of critique under those conditions of global entanglement and asymmetrical relations from a diversity of scholarly perspectives within the humanities All contributions move the notion of critique into more diverse traditions than the Eurocentric Kantian tradition and emphasize the need to attend to a plurality of critical perspectives The volume's reflections move critique toward a situated perspectival and entangled critical stance with interventions from decolonial and systemic deconstructive and post-humanist perspectives In that way the volume develops a decidedly different approach to critique than recent considerations of critique as post-critique Felski or those indebted to Frankfurt School thought and liberal theories of democracy It is the first full-length research publication of the interdisciplinary research network Terra Critica
