Justice Pamela Ugwu-dike, Hannah Graham, Fergus McNeill, Peter Raynor, Faye S. Taxman, Chris Trotter, 2019-09-12 All the world's criminal justice systems need to undertake direct work with people who have come into their care or are under their supervision as a result of criminal offences. Typically this is organized in penal and correctional services in custody in prisons or in the community supervised by services such as probation. Bringing together international experts this book is the go to source for students researchers and practitioners in criminal justice looking for a comprehensive and authoritative summary of available knowledge in the field. Covering a variety of contexts settings needs and approaches and drawing on theory and practice this Companion brings together over 90 entries offering readers concise and definitive overviews of a range of key contemporary issues on working with offenders. The book is split into thematic sections and includes coverage of Theories and models for working with offenders Policy contexts of offender supervision and rehabilitation Direct work with offenders Control surveillance and practice Resettlement Application to specific groups including female offenders young offenders families and ethnic minorities Application to specific needs and contexts such as substance misuse mental health violence and risk assessment Practitioner and offender perspectives The development of an evidence base This book is an essential and flexible resource for researchers and practitioners alike and is an authoritative guide for students taking courses on working with offenders criminal justice policy probation prisons penology and community corrections. Evidence-Based Skills in Criminal Justice Pamela Ugwu-dike, Peter Raynor, Jill Annison, 2018-12-12 How can evidence based skills and practices reduce re offending support desistance and encourage service user engagement during supervision in criminal justice settings? How can those who work with service users in these settings apply these skills and practices? This book is the first to bring together international research on skills and practices in probation and youth justice while exploring the wider contexts that affect their implementation in the public private and voluntary sectors. Wide ranging in scope it also covers effective approaches to working with diverse groups such as ethnic minority service users women and young people. The Wiley Handbook of What Works in Violence Risk Management J. Rehabilitation Work Hannah Graham, 2016-05-26 Conversations about rehabilitation and how to address the drugs crime nexus have been dominated by academics and policymakers without due recognition of the experience and knowledge of practitioners Not enough is known about the cultures and conditions in which rehabilitation occurs Why is it that significant numbers of practitioners are leaving the alcohol and other drugs field while disproportionate numbers of criminal justice practitioners are on leave Rehabilitation Work provides a unique insight into what happens behind the closed doors of prisons probation and parole offices drug rehabs and recovery support services drawing on research from Australia This book is among the first to provide a dedicated empirical examination of the interface between the concurrent processes of desistance from crime and recovery from substance misuse and the implications for rehabilitation work Hannah Graham uses practitioner interviews workforce data and researcher observations to reveal compelling differences between official accounts of rehabilitation work and what practitioners actually do in practice Practitioners express a desire to be the change rather than being subject to change actively co producing progressive reforms instead of passively coping with funding cutbacks and interagency politics Applied examples of how practitioners collaborate lead and innovate in the midst of challenging work are complemented with evocative illustrations of insider humour and professional resilience This book is a key resource for students academics and practitioners across fields including criminology and criminal justice social work psychology counselling and addiction treatment

Reimagining Rehabilitation Lol Burke, Steve Collett, Fergus McNeill, 2018-09-17 This book aims to make the case for and provide some of the resources necessary to reimagine rehabilitation for twenty first century criminal justice Outlining an approach to rehabilitation which takes into account wider democratic processes political structures and mechanisms of resource allocation the authors develop a new model of rehabilitation comprising four forms personal legal social and moral Personal rehabilitation concerns how individuals make their journeys away from offending and towards reintegration and how they can be supported to do so whilst legal rehabilitation concerns the role of the criminal courts in the process of restricting and then restoring the rights and status of citizens Moral rehabilitation is concerned with the ethical basis of the interactions between the individual who has offended and the people and organisations charged with providing rehabilitative services Social rehabilitation explores the crucial contribution civil society can make to rehabilitation exploring this through the lens of citizenship community and social capital Drawing on the conceptual insights offered in the late Stan Cohen s seminal work

Visions of Social Control and specifically his insistence that modern social institutions can aspire to doing good and doing justice the authors argue that these values can underpin a moral pragmatism in designing social interventions that must go beyond achieving simply instrumental ends Reimagining rehabilitation within the context of social action and social justice this book is essential reading for students and scholars alike particularly those engaged with criminal justice policy probation and offender rehabilitation The Enforcement of Offender Supervision in Europe Miranda Boone, Niamh

Maguire, 2017-11-09 This book provides a comparative analysis of the process of breach across ten different European jurisdictions by identifying and elaborating a number of key analytical themes through which the different systems can be compared and evaluated It is informed by and hopes to advance the research activities of the COST Action IS1106 on Offender Supervision in Europe particularly the Action's work on developing new comparative methodologies to examine the process of decision making involved in the breaching of offenders for non compliance This volume consists of country chapters and thematic chapters Analyses are based on exhaustive reviews of the literature available in each jurisdiction as well as the results of an empirical pilot study to provide a unique and valuable insight into current practice as well as enhancing our understanding of the contingencies and vagaries of the processes of breach as they exist in both civil and common law European jurisdictions The key themes and emerging concerns that are explored include the roles and responsibilities of the different actors involved in the breach process the degree and nature of discretion exercised by decision makers and legitimacy due process and procedural requirements of breach processes both from a pan European and from a comparative perspective This book will be of interest to criminal lawyers and criminologists policy makers criminal justice practitioners probation workers and students of criminal justice studies across Europe Comparative insight into the decision making processes of breach across Europe will also be of interest to American Canadian and Australian audiences seeking comparisons with their own systems Innovative Justice Hannah Graham, Rob White, 2014-07-17 This book showcases innovative justice initiatives from around the world which engage offenders practitioners and communities to reduce reoffending and support desistance and positive change It is groundbreaking in bringing together inspiring ideas and pioneering practices to analyse how justice done differently is making a difference The voices and experiences of the people at the forefront of these innovative initiatives are presented throughout the book including offenders corrections staff and directors the judiciary scientists and academics volunteers and community organisations Strengths based research methods are used to investigate and celebrate best practices and good news stories from the field The authors raise critical questions about what is considered innovative and effective for whom and in what context presenting their own conceptual approach for analysing innovation With initiatives drawn from diverse jurisdictions and cultures including the UK Europe Australia Asia the US and South America this book showcases original ideas and refreshing developments that have the potential to transform rehabilitation and reintegration practices The book's substance and style will resonate with practitioners students and academics across the interdisciplinary fields of criminology and criminal justice

What Works In Offender Compliance International Perspectives And Evidence Based Practice: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. What Works In Offender Compliance International Perspectives And Evidence Based Practice : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. What Works In Offender Compliance International Perspectives And Evidence Based Practice : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. What Works In Offender Compliance International Perspectives And Evidence Based Practice : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
