Worlds Woven Together Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2022-07-29 Writing about poetry follows models provided either by academic scholarship or literary journalism each with its pitfalls The former distances the reader from the poem and effaces the critic's personality In literary journalism the critic is front and center but the discussion is introductory and prioritizes value judgments In either case entrenched practices and patterns of privilege limit one's perspective The situation worsens when it comes to minoritized poets and poets from the Global South where the focus is on restrictive notions of identity the stylistic innovations of literary works get ousted by prefabricated historical narratives In Worlds Woven Together the critic poet and scholar Vidyan Ravinthiran searches for alternatives pursuing close imaginative readings of a variety of writers His essays are open ended attentive and curious unabashedly passionate and subjective yet keenly analytical and investigative Discussing neglected authors and those well known in the West Ravinthiran sees politics as inseparable from literary form and is fascinated by the relation of the creative consciousness to the violences of history The book features essays on writers including Mir Taqi Mir Ana Blandiana A K Ramanujan Marianne Moore Eunice de Souza Czeslaw Milosz Ted Hughes Rae Armantrout Arvind Krishna Mehrotra Galway Kinnell Dawn Lundy Martin and Vahni Capildeo Revealing serendipitous connections between poems and cultures between lines of verse and the lives we lead

A Year by the Sea Joan Anderson, 2000-08-15 The basis for the major motion picture of the same name An entrancing memoir of how one woman's journey of self discovery gave her the courage to persevere in re-creating her life Life is a work in progress as ever changing as a sandy shoreline along the beach During the years Joan Anderson was a loving wife and supportive mother she had slowly and unconsciously replaced her own dreams with the needs of her family With her sons grown however she realized that the family no longer centered on the home she provided and her relationship with her husband had become stagnant Like many women in her situation Joan realized that she had neglected to nurture herself and worse to envision fulfilling goals for her future As her husband received a wonderful job opportunity out of state it seemed that the best part of her own life was finished Shocking both of them she refused to follow him to his new job and decided to retreat to a family cottage on Cape Cod At first casting about for direction Joan soon began to take pleasure in her surroundings and call on resources she didn't realize she had Over the course of a year she gradually discovered that her life as an unfinished woman was full of possibilities Out of that magical difficult transformative year came A Year by the Sea a record of her experiences and a treasury of wisdom for readers Endgame May Sarton, 1992 Debilitating illness struck her in the heart and lung energy drained from her body and yet poet May Sarton was able to dictate into a machine to write with her voice
