Where Streets Name Randa Abdel Fattah:

Where the Streets Had a Name Randa Abdel-Fattah, 2008-10-01 I need to see Sitti Zeynab one last time To know if I will have the courage to go ahead with my plan The two nurses look frazzled and smile wearily at me We must leave now they say in urgent tones I won't be long I reassure them and I jump up onto the back of the ambulance I can smell the air of her village pure and scented I can see her village as though it were Bethlehem itself I can smell the almond trees Hear my heels click on the courtyard tiles See myself jumping two steps at a time down the limestone stairs I can see Sitti Zeynab sitting in the front porch of the house I only have to remember that walk through her memories and I know I can make my promise I've already lost once I refuse to lose again Stay alive I whisper And you shall touch that soil again Thirteen year old Hayaat is on a mission She believes a handful of soil from her grandmother's ancestral home in Jerusalem will save her beloved Sitti Zeynab's life The only problem is the impenetrable wall that divides the West Bank as well as the check points the curfews the permit system and Hayaat's best friend Samy who is mainly interested in football and the latest elimination on X Factor but always manages to attract trouble But luck is on their side Hayaat and Samy have a curfew free day to travel to Jerusalem However while their journey may only be a few kilometres long it may take a lifetime to complete A Study Guide for Randa Abdel-Fattah's "Does My Head Look Big in This?" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Randa Abdel Fattah's Does My Head Look Big in This excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs The Friendship
