Wildlife Wars The Life And Times Of A Fish And Game Warden:

Wildlife Wars Terry Grosz, 1999 Wildlife Wars serves up tales from Terry Grosz's early years as a game warden in the field for the State of California where he matched wits with elk poachers salmon snappers duck harvesters and a host of other law breakers

Defending Our Wildlife Heritage Terry Grosz, 2001 The author a special agent for the U S Fish and Wildlife Service discusses his activities investigating the smuggling of wildlife illegal commercialization of wildlife illegal take of wildlife and illegal commercialization of the parts and products of wildlife

21st Century Criminology: A Reference Handbook J. Mitchell Miller, 2009-08-06 Criminology has experienced tremendous growth over the last few decades evident in part by the widespread popularity and increased enrollment in criminology and criminal justice departments at the undergraduate and graduate levels across the U S and internationally Evolutionary paradigmatic shift has accompanied this surge in definitional disciplinary and pragmatic terms Though long identified as a leading sociological specialty area criminology has emerged as a stand alone discipline in its own right one that continues to grow and is clearly here to stay Criminology today remains inherently theoretical but is also far more applied in focus and thus more connected to the academic and practitioner concerns of criminal justice and related professional service fields Contemporary criminology is also increasingly interdisciplinary and thus features a broad variety of ideological orientations to and perspectives on the causes effects and responses to crime

21st Century Criminology A Reference Handbook provides straightforward and definitive overviews of 100 key topics comprising traditional criminology and its modern outgrowths The individual chapters have been designed to serve as a first look reference source for most criminological inquiries Both connected to the sociological origins of criminology i e theory and research methods and the justice systems response to crime and related social problems as well as coverage of major crime types this two volume set offers a comprehensive overview of the current state of criminology From student term papers and masters theses to researchers commencing literature reviews 21st Century Criminology is a ready source from which to quickly access authoritative knowledge on a range of key issues and topics central to contemporary criminology This two volume set in the SAGE 21st Century Reference Series is intended to provide undergraduate majors with an authoritative reference source that will serve their research needs with more detailed information than encyclopedia entries but not so much jargon detail or density as a journal article or research handbook chapter 100 entries or mini chapters highlight the most important topics issues questions and debates any student obtaining a degree in this field ought to have mastered for effectiveness in the 21st century Curricular driven chapters provide students with initial footholds on topics of interest in researching term papers in preparing for GREs in consulting to determine directions to take in pursuing a senior thesis graduate degree career etc Comprehensive in coverage major sections include The Discipline of Criminology Correlates of Crime Theories of Crime Justice Measurement Research Types of Crime and Crime the Justice System The contributor group is comprised of well known figures and emerging young scholars who provide authoritative overviews coupled with insightful discussion that will quickly familiarize researchers students and general readers alike with fundamental and detailed information for each topic Uniform chapter structure makes it easy for students to locate key information with most chapters following a format of Introduction Theory Methods Applications Comparison Future Directions Summary Bibliography Suggestions for Further Reading and Cross References Availability in print and electronic formats provides students with convenient easy access wherever they may be

A Sword for Mother Nature Terry Grosz, 2002 Award winning author Terry Grosz whose career in conservation is matched by his skill as a storyteller revisits his rookie years as a fish and game warden for the State of California where his on the job training got him into some awful scrapes but the bad guys he chased almost always got into worse ones As a law enforcement agent he learned to sniff out trouble defuse tense situations and stay alive and as a human being he learned to temper justice with mercy and to treat everyone fairly Grosz s stories are action packed and driven by his passion to preserve our country s wildlife whether he was working under the wing of a mentor fighting out from underfoot of the bureaucrats or stepping on the toes of corrupt and hypocritical politicians

Hooked by Fly Fishing: Feel-Good Stories of Family and Friends, Life Lessons, Mishaps, and Mayhem Graham M. Mott, 2024-07-01 Experience the joy and peace of fly fishing in Hooked by Fly Fishing a love letter to the sport by Graham M Mott Hooked by Fly Fishing brings you more than tales of trophy sized trout and salmon caught in beautiful locations Mott offers valuable insights humorous anecdotes and life lessons learned along the way His book will leave you feeling inspired and uplifted Feel the thrill of catching trophy sized trout and salmon in Colorado Montana Wyoming Alaska Laugh with the author as he shares his antics and mishaps Reflect on his life lessons and personal connections while fly fishing Heartfelt stories of the author s relationship with his son stepson and friends through the love of fly fishing Humorous tales of encountering outlaws and unexpected obstacles Praise for Graham Mott Hooked by Fly Fishing Great job with this book Fun memories in magical places shared with close friends and family is what life is all about Hats off to you Graham Karl Decker Mountaineering Videographer Karl Decker Presents YouTube I loved the stories And it sounds like you ve hooked yourself a few times Comes with the territory a fisherman must endure the elements the whims of the fish and the threat or thrill of the hook I m so glad you wrote these great tales down Joel Morris best selling author of his first book All our Yesterdays A Novel of Lady MacBeth Here is a book review from John Shewey Editor of American Fly Fishing Magazine I love a good yarn fly fishing or otherwise but a fun tale from a fly angler is especially entertaining and Graham M Mott delivers a collection of true stories that will ring familiar to anyone who has practiced the art for a longtime His stories will resonate with fly anglers in all walks of life In one incident Mott manages to impale himself with a fly We ve all been there but not of all us have fished out the rest of the day with a fly dangling from our lip before finally seeking medical attention at a local clinic Some of us have done that but few of us can report a second self hooking that only to ends up in front of the same doctor Fly fishing as a conduit for deeper more meaningful more fulfilling relationships with friends and family members is a recurring theme in Hooked by Fly Fishing and Mott recalls many times when his favorite sport his addiction has provided him catharsis Mott's stories enshrine personal relationships made all the richer through fly fishing His stories range from the humorous to the poignant He also recounts some great catches but his essays clearly echo the sentiment that it's the fishing that matters far more than the catching A Great gift for any fisherman Order your copy of Hooked by Fly Fishing now

Wildlife Wars Terry Grosz, 1999 Environmentalism meets Indiana Jones in these rip snorting tales of a former wildlife conservation officer The bad guys here are illegal deer hunters law breaking drag boat fishermen who pilfer the ocean depths poachers who kill elk anglers who disrupt historic salmon spawning grounds and other miscreants who feed the flourishing illicit wildlife trade Grosz has seen them all and arrested many in his 32 years as a special agent for the U S Fish and Wildlife Service and as a California state fish and game warden A bear of a man six foot four over 300 pounds Grosz relates his exploits in adventures full of slam bang action and bravado tempered by a coolheaded sense of humor Motivated by reverence for God's creation he comes off as a mixture of guts and heart In one episode he sleeps overnight in a California rice field with a feeding flock of several thousand mallard ducks to protect them from commercial hunters Full of gumption and guile Grosz readily admits to failings that render him more likably human He gets seasick and retches while making on board boat inspections and in one bust gone bad a duck hunter sprays his backside with 189 shotgun pellets Overall these offbeat tales effectively dramatize the underfunded underappreciated dangerous and heroic activities of wildlife agents Oct
