Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff, 2012-08-01 This classic critique of Christian education is revised expanded and includes Westerhoff's overview on the state Christian education over the past forty years According to Westerhoff instead of guiding faith formation within the family the church and the school we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes There children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts

These Are Our Bodies, Foundation Book Leslie Choplin, Jenny Beaumont, 2016-08-01 Easily accessible theologically progressive mainline Christian Education resource on human sexuality Our inherent value and worth comes from God's love for us but our modern world is filled with sexual expression that too often leads us away from the life of Christ As Christians seeking to live a life worthy of our calling and desiring to pass along these values to our children and youth this book explores how we as parents and adults can explore issues of sexuality in the context of our faith A sexuality education resource from a mainline progressive denominational prospective aids the adult reader teacher parent in learning and using skills that enable them to embrace and affirm the wholeness of sexuality and to talk openly and honestly about the connection of sexuality and faith This book grounded from a theological perspective focuses on foundational issues for addressing how we and why we are called to have these conversations in a faithful community to support families The importance of looking at one's sexuality throughout the lifespan through the lenses of decision making faith and daily life respect growth and change behavior responsibility values prayer and intentionality is explored offering a grounding as well as stand alone resource for individuals and churches to build upon

Children's Ministry in the Way of Jesus David M. Csinos, Ivy Beckwith, 2013-10-04 Attract kids to church the logic often goes and you get parents in the pews All that's left is to get the kids out of the way Here children's ministers David Csinos and Ivy Beckwith draw on research in human development and spiritual formation to show how children become disciples and churches become centers of lifelong discipleship

Questioning Our Faith in Practice Katherine Turpin, 2024-10-07 Practical theology emerged as a discipline steeped in white supremacy traces of which can be found in some of its most central practices and habits of mind Identifying the remnants of this legacy allows practical theologians to begin to imagine how to proceed without reinscribing narratives of white saviors unlimited progress dominating control of bodies and individual heroic leadership You are invited to question this worldview while learning from scholars imagining a decolonized future
