Constance Fenimore Woolson, 1894-01-01 IN a mountain village of North Carolina in the year 1873 the spring had opened with its accustomed beauty But one day there came a pure cold wind which swept through the high valley at tremendous speed from dawn to midnight People who never succumb to mere comfort did not relight their fires But to the Franklin family comfort was a goddess they would never have thought of calling her mere delightful was their word and Ruth would probably have said delicious The fire in Mrs Franklin s parlor therefore having been piled with fresh logs at two o clock as an offering to this deity was now at four sending out a ruddy glow It was a fire which called forth Ruth s highest approbation when she came in followed by her dog Petie Trone Esq Not that Ruth had been facing the blast she never went out from a sense of duty and for her there was no pleasure in doing battle with things that were disagreeable for the sake merely of conquering them Ruth had come from her own room where there was a fire also but one not so generous as this for here the old fashioned hearth was broad and deep The girl sat down on the rug before the blaze and then after a moment she stretched herself out at full length there with her head resting on her arm thrown back behind it It s a pity Ruth that with all your little ways you are not little yourself remarked Dolly Franklin the elder sister Such a whalelike creature sprawled on the floor isn t endearing it looks like something out of Gulliver It s always so observed Mrs Franklin drowsily It s the oddest thing in the world but people never will stay in character they want to be something different Don t you remember that whenever poor Sue Inness was asked to sing the wee little creature invariably chanted Here s a health to King Charles in as martial a voice as she could summon Whereas Lucia Lewis who is as big as a grenadier always warbles softly some such thing as Call me pet names dearest Call me a bird Bird Mastodon would do better Mastodon Ruth commented It is evident His Grand that you have seen Miss Billy to day Ruth was not a whale in spite of Dolly s assertion But she was tall her shoulders had a marked breadth and her arms were long She was very slender and supple and this slenderness together with her small hands and feet took away all idea of majesty in connection with her tall though she was one did not think of majesty but rather of girlish merriment and girlish activity And girlish indolence as well Mrs Franklin had once said Ruth is either running or jumping or doing something in such haste that she is breathless or else she is stretched out at full length on the carpet or the sofa looking as though she never intended to move again The girl had a dark complexion with a rich color and hair that was almost black her face was lighted by blue eyes with long thick black lashes which made a dark fringe round the blue The persons who liked Ruth thought her beautiful they asserted that her countenance had in it something which was captivating But others replied that though her friends might call her captivating if they pleased since that word denotes merely a personal charm they had no right to say that she was beautiful for as regards beauty there are well defined rules and with the exception of her wonderful eyes the face of the second Miss Franklin transgressed every one of these canons Ruth s features were without doubt irregular And especially was it true that her mouth was large But the lips were exquisitely cut and the teeth very white Regarding her appearance as a whole there was a fact which had not as yet been noticed namely that no man ever found fault with it the criticism came always from feminine lips And these critics spoke the truth but they forgot or rather they did not see some of the compensations There were people not a few even in her own small circle who did not look with favor upon Ruth Franklin it was not merely so they asserted that she was heedless and frivolous caring only for her own amusement and sacrificing everything to that for of many young persons this could be said but they maintained in addition that hers was a disposition in its essence self indulgent she was indolent she was fond of luxuries she was even fond of good eating an odd accusation to be brought against a girl of that age In this case also the charges were made by feminine lips And again it may be added that while these critics spoke the truth or part of the truth they did not on the other hand see some of the compensations
