Bendroth, 2014-12-05 Transitional ministry can be tremendously helpful for congregations in times of change and yet to be successful today transitional ministers and churches need to take into account the major changes in the religious landscape From the decline of mainline churches to the rise of those who don't identify with any religious tradition the religious scene has changed dramatically since transitional ministry began three decades ago and to remain vital today the practice of transitional ministry must change as well This book provides transitional ministers and congregations with essential information on re thinking transitional ministry in ways that take the current religious climate into account Ten experienced authors including seasoned practitioners of transitional ministry and those who oversee transitional ministry denomination wide propose new ways to approach transitional ministry today Chapters address practical theology leadership specialized interim situations renewal during interim time alternative models of transitional ministry and more Essays address a range of diverse churches in size racial ethnic background and location Transitional Ministry Today highlights how creative and cutting edge ministry can be done during the in between time through creative thinking and practice in the face of new realities Pastoral Care and Counseling Helsel, Philip Browning, 2019 Addresses the critique that pastoral care is indistinguishable from secular psychotherapy by placing a person's relationship to God at the center of pastoral care Sacrifice Lost Theuring, Ashley, 2025-03-05 Professional Sexual Ethics Patricia Beattie Jung, Darryl W. Stephens, 2013-12-01 Sexual health is an essential part of maintaining professional relationships in ministry Focusing on implications for the practice of ministry this book engages all dimensions of theological education and academic disciplines Each chapter includes an analysis of common ministry situations discussion questions practical guidelines and resources for further study The volume is ideal for use in courses on professional ethics for ministry advanced leadership training and continuing education for clergy Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath,2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can reprogram our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here

Shared Wisdom Pamela Cooper-White,2024-11-19 For twenty years clinical pastoral educators congregational caregivers chaplains pastoral psychotherapists and pastoral theologians have turned to Pamela Cooper White s Shared Wisdom to ground their teaching training and understandings of countertransference and how the use of the caregiver s self in turn impacts the relational dynamic between caregivers and care seekers Now Cooper White updates her groundbreaking book to present new insights on how understanding one s own emotional reactions remains a core competency for ministry With precision and depth Cooper White continues to innovate the theory and practice of spiritual care counseling and spiritual psychotherapy This revised and expanded 20th anniversary edition explores current research on countertransference and intersubjectivity mutual influence and unconscious relationships and intercultural and interreligious dynamics in caring relationships Cooper White examines how the relational paradigm for pastoral assessment and theological reflection that she pioneered now has important implications for evolving types of care relationships As she does so she addresses emerging topics such as postcolonial theory spiritual and religious fluidity and gender diversity CPE supervisors pastoral care and counseling educators and practitioners pastoral theology scholars and psychotherapists looking for an in depth understanding of relationality and intersubjectivity will find the 20th anniversary edition of Shared Wisdom a must have resource to build and expand upon a core competency Ethics for Christian Ministry Joe E. Trull,R. Robert Creech,2017-11-01 This one of a kind resource in professional ethics helps today s Christian leaders maintain a high moral character and lifestyle and sharpen their personal and professional decision making skills Two experienced teachers and pastors address both current and perennial ethical issues and offer guidance for developing a personal code of ethics to maintain integrity in the work of ministry The authors address the nature of ethical decision making as well as practical areas where integrity can be compromised including issues raised by the use of smartphones and social media Appendixes include codes of ethics from various denominations

Tragedies and Christian Congregations Christopher Southgate, Carla Grosch-Miller, Hilary Ison, Megan Warner, 2019-09-26 When tragedy strikes a community it is often unexpected with long lasting effects on the people left in its wake Too often there aren't adequate systems in place to aid those affected in processing what has happened This study uniquely combines practical theology pastoral insight and scientific data to demonstrate how Christian congregations can be helped to be resilient in the face of sudden devastating events Beginning by identifying the characteristics of trauma in individuals and communities this collection of essays from practitioners and academics locates sudden trauma inducing tragedies as a problem in practical theology A range of biblical and theological responses are presented but contemporary scientific understanding is also included in order to challenge and stretch some of these traditional theological resources The pastoral section of the book examines the ethics of response to tragedy locating the role of the minister in relation to other helping agencies and exploring the all too topical issue of ministerial abuse Developing a nuanced rationale for good practical pastoral liturgical and theological responses to major traumas this book will be of significant value to scholars of practical theology as well as practitioners counselling in and around church congregations
