Martial Arts as Embodied Knowledge D. S. Farrer, John Whalen-Bridge, 2011-12-01 This landmark work provides a wide ranging scholarly consideration of the traditional Asian martial arts Most of the contributors to the volume are practitioners of the martial arts and all are keenly aware that these traditions now exist in a transnational context The book s cutting edge research includes ethnography and approaches from film literature performance and theater studies Three central aspects emerge from this book martial arts as embodied fantasy as a culturally embedded form of self cultivation and as a continuous process of identity formation Contributors explore several popular and highbrow cultural considerations including the career of Bruce Lee Chinese wuxia films and Don DeLillo s novel Running Dog Ethnographies explored describe how the social body trains in martial arts and how martial arts are constructed in transnational training Ultimately this academic study of martial arts offers a focal point for new understandings of cultural and social beliefs and of practice and agency
