Undergoing God Dispatches From The Scene Of A Break In:

Undergoing God James Alison, 2006-11-27 From the Catholic theologian priest and author of Knowing Jesus comes this collection of thoughts on lesbian and gay issues reconciliation the Eucharist psychology and evil and worship in a violent world

Sexual Deceit Kelby Harrison, 2013-03-14 Sexual Deceit is an extended ethical analysis of the phenomenon of sexual identity passing i.e. socially presenting as X when one understands oneself as Y where the variables represent any contemporary sexual identity alongside identity passing in the contexts of race gender and briefly religion and class The analysis of passing utilizes and challenges traditional moral understandings of identity falsification complicating our understandings of moral obligations under systemic oppression Tracing the intervention of social construction theory on contemporary political understandings of LGBT communities and activism Sexual Deceit argues against social construction models of identity notably performativity promulgated by the work of Judith Butler and consumed and repeated by many scholars and theory educated queer people A new model of identity is constructed based on a phenomenological concept of style that provides for a socially adjustable yet rooted notion of sexual identity The ethical implications of sexual identity passing are considered in the context of eschatological images of social justice and within practical matters such as military service leadership and sexual harassment law

James Alison and a Girardian Theology John P. Edwards, 2020-05-14 Opening with a Foreword by James Alison this volume is the first in depth treatment of Alison's theological method John P. Edwards shows that Alison's theological project outstrips Ren Girard's application of mimetic theory to theology He concludes that an explicitly Christian theological perspective is necessary for providing a fully coherent account of Girard's notions of conversion and mimetic desire This volume grounds Alison's theological method in his understanding of the ongoing interaction between conversion and theological reflection which is informed by his use of mimetic theory While Alison describes this method as theology in the order of the discovery the author refers to it as an inductive theology The volume closes by demonstrating that such a theology bears fruit in a renewed understanding of the value of Christian doctrines and particularly the doctrine of revelation

Making Sense of Sex Adrian Thatcher, 2012-06-21 All living creatures are sexed Human beings belong to societies where traditions about who can have sex with whom and how and when are centuries old Making sense of sex assumes that there is a rational way of understanding our basic drives But our inevitable failure to get sex right is the beginning of a proper and theological understanding of sex The Christian tradition especially in its conservative forms is often thought to be unhelpful in making sense of sex Christian sexual ethics may seem overly demanding holistic in theory yet sexist and pessimistic in practice Adrian Thatcher argues however that instead of being pessimistic about sex Christians can be grateful realists instead Making Sense of Sex draws on the resources of Liberal Theology to promote a mature union of spirituality and sexuality Exploring topics such as desire bodies and the Body of Christ sexual difference homosexuality marriage and Paul's reflection on flesh and spirit it will help to guide readers towards a spiritual understanding of shared sexual love Resurrection and Moral Imagination Sarah Bachelard, 2016-04-08 Moral life gathers its shape force and meaning in relation to an underlying sense of reality imaginatively conceived Significant contemporary writing in philosophy appeals to the concept of transcendence to explore what is deepest in our moral experience but leaves this notion theologically unspecified This book reflects on the appeal to transcendence in ethics with reference to the Resurrection of Jesus Bachelard argues that the Resurrection reveals that the ultimate reality in which human life is held is gracious forgiving and reconciling a Goodness that is for us Faith in this testimony transforms the possibilities of moral life both conceptually and in practice It invites our participation in a goodness experienced non dualistically as grace and so profoundly affects the formation of the moral self the practice of moral judgement and the shape of moral concepts From this perspective contemporary philosophical discussion about transcendence in moral thought is cast in a new light and debates about the continuity between theological and secular ethics gain a thoroughly new dimension Bachelard demonstrates that placing the Resurrection at the heart of our ethical reflection resonates with the deepest currents of our lived moral experience and transfigures our approach to moral life and thought Theodicy and Spirituality in the Fourth Gospel Daniel DeForest London, 2020-06-15 Daniel DeForest London argues that the Fourth Gospel offers a potentially transformative response to the question of suffering and the human compulsion to blame Based on his reading of John 9 the man born blind London argues that the Gospel does not offer a theodicy but rather a theodical spirituality an experience of praying the question of suffering and remaining open to a divine response London shows how the Johannine Jesus's response poses three sets of symbols in dichotomy day night vision blindness sheep wolf each subverted by another core symbol light judge shepherd By interpreting these symbols in light of mimetic theory he argues that Jesus's response reveals the scapegoat mechanism in which an innocent victim is blamed by violent victimizers However rather than blaming the victimizers Jesus continues to engage with the characters who appear to be villains the light of the world transforms night and day into one continuous day the Good Shepherd welcomes sheep and wolf into his beloved flock In this way readers are invited to bring to the Johannine Jesus their own violence resentment and wolfish rage regarding the question of suffering and to experience the theodical spirituality of the Fourth Gospel Female Faith Practices Nicola Slee, Dawn Llewellyn, Kim Wasey, Lindsey Taylor-Guthartz, 2023-08-01 This book explores female faith practices drawing on qualitative research to consider how women navigate and create spiritual and religious practices The chapters cover Christian Muslim Jewish and Buddhist contexts as well as newer spiritual movements The contributors examine prayer and ritual practices and familial educational and ritual spaces and relationships in a variety of cultural settings The volume reflects on the ways in which women subvert traditional or patriarchal religious practices and spaces both problematising and expanding existing notions of religious practice It also touches on research itself as a form of spiritual and academic practice considering ways in which women challenge androcentric modes of research as well as ways in which the subject of research in this case female faith may challenge the researcher's convictions and practice Blending case studies with empirical research this book will be an outstanding resource to theologians and researchers interested in Practical Theology Gender Studies Sociology of Religion and Anthropology Resisting Violence and Victimisation Joel Hodge, 2016-03-23 The reality and nature of religious faith raises difficult questions for the modern world questions that re present themselves when faith has grown under the most challenging circumstances In East Timor widespread Christian faith emerged when suffering and violence were inflicted on the people by the state This book seeks a deeper understanding of faith and violence exploring how Christian faith and solidarity affected the hope and resistance of the East Timorese under Indonesian occupation in their response to state sanctioned violence Joel Hodge argues for an understanding of Christian faith as a relational phenomenon that provides personal and collective tools to resist violence Grounded in the work of mimetic theorist Ren Girard Hodge contends that the experience of victimisation in East Timor led to an important identification with Jesus Christ as self giving victim and formed a distinctive communal and ecclesial solidarity The Catholic Church opened spaces of resistance and communion that allowed the Timorese to imagine and live beyond the violence and death perpetrated by the Indonesian regime Presenting the East Timorese stories under occupation and Girard's insights in dialogue this book offers fresh perspectives on the Christian Church's ecclesiology and mission Towards a Theology of Same-Sex Marriage Clare Herbert, 2020-12-21 A transformative exploration of queer theology and the debate around same sex marriage within the Church Clare Herbert draws on her experience as a priest within the Church of England in a committed same sex relationship and considers the questions that have shaped religious debate for many years This book explores the concept of same sex marriage in relation to the heteronormative definition of marriage and its effect on past understandings of the sacrament Interweaving stories from Christians struggling to reconcile their faith with their sexuality alongside wider queer theology and the theology of marriage Herbert explores the unique understanding of God provided by the experience of committed same sex love and lays the groundwork for redefining the traditional definition of marriage Culture-Sensitive Ministry Kenneth McGuire, Eduardo C. Fernández, Anne Hansen, 2010 A practical process guide that offers a useful model for raising multicultural awareness along with helpful ways to deal with cultural diversity in pastoral ministry
