Strategic Goal	The new Russian Empire and several European powers were hungry for the Asian region that would become their frontier. Imperialism would speed the nation's progress. The world's dominant European nation by its military technology.
Key Development	Imperialism had a further to improve the world than to make them better. Imperialism through trade, the new technologies (rail), and the transportation that brought commodities, which was brought about by a powerful political reform.
Demographic Statistics	Population increased to 1.4 billion (1.4 million) in 1914.
Political	There are examples of Russia that showed the implementation of political and legal reform. All citizens could participate, but the emperor remained responsible for the state's affairs.
