What Is a World? Pheng Cheah, 2015-12-17 In What Is a World Pheng Cheah a leading theorist of cosmopolitanism offers the first critical consideration of world literature's cosmopolitan vocation Addressing the failure of recent theories of world literature to inquire about the meaning of world Cheah articulates a normative theory of literature's world making power by creatively synthesizing four philosophical accounts of the world as a temporal process idealism Marxist materialism phenomenology and deconstruction Literature opens worlds he provocatively suggests because it is a force of receptivity Cheah compellingly argues for postcolonial literature's exemplarity as world literature through readings of narrative fiction by Michelle Cliff Amitav Ghosh Nuruddin Farah Ninotchka Rosca and Timothy Mo that show how these texts open up new possibilities for remaking the world by negotiating with the inhuman force that gives time and deploying alternative temporalities to resist capitalist globalization

Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research

World Literature and Postcolonial Studies ,2023-04-17 What is the role of literature in our global landscape today How do local authors respond to the growing worldwide power of English and the persisting effects of the colonial systems that paved the way for globalization today These questions have often been approached very differently by postcolonialists and by students of world literature but over the past two decades a developing dialogue between these divergent approaches has produced robust scholarship and sometimes fractious debate as issues of language politics and cultural difference have come to the fore Drawing on a wide variety of cases from medieval Wales to contemporary Syria and Australia and on works written in Arabic Basque English Hindi and more this collection explores the mutual illumination that can be gained through the interaction of postcolonial and world literary perspectives 'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P.

Liao,2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9 11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9 11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9 11 South Asian diasporic fictions The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic,Magdalena Pfalzgraf,Hanna Teichler,2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies

The Work of World Literature Francesco Giusti, Benjamin Lewis Robinson, 2021-04-27 The contentious discourse around world literature tends to stress the world in the phrase This volume in contrast asks what it means to approach world literature by inflecting the question of the literary Debates for against and around world literature have brought renewed attention to the worldly aspects of the literary enterprise Literature is studied with regard to its sociopolitical and cultural references contexts and conditions of production circulation distribution and translation But what becomes of the literary when one speaks of world literature Responding to Derek Attridge's theory of how literature works the contributions in this volume explore in diverse ways and with attention to a variety of literary practices what it might mean to speak of the work of world literature The volume shows how attention to literariness complicates the ethical and political conundrums at the centre of debates about world literature
