Whole Gospel Participants Guide Revisiting:

Rethinking Freire and Illich Rosa Bruno-Jofré, Michael Attridge, Jon Igelmo Zaldívar, 2023-10-02 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of two of the most influential books in modern educational and social theory Rethinking Freire and Illich introduces readers to the results of the symposium of Paulo Freire's Pedagogy of the Oppressed and Ivan Illich's Deschooling Society. The collection uniquely analyses Freire and Illich together although not in a comparative way. It acknowledges that both Freire and Illich led in different ways to a new approach to perceiving and understanding the concept of liberation as a human condition while also presenting current criticisms of their work from a gendered perspective and by Indigenous scholars in the US and Canada. Drawing on contributions from historians of education, theologians, digital experts and philosophers of education, the book offers a historical analysis using extensive primary sources and an originality of topics. It introduces the ways in which the current generation reads the overall works of Freire and Illich in the search for a reconstructed democratic education. As a result, Rethinking Freire and Illich presents Freire and Illich in light of contemporary issues in this generation and offers renewed searches for a good and just life and a reconstructed democratic education.

Rethinking Vocation Eric Robinson, 2023-09-07 What does it mean to be called? How does one discern his or her calling? There has been much discussion about these topics within the church and perhaps much confusion as well. What if we could root the nature of the believer's calling and vocation from a missional perspective? This book seeks to understand how a deeper understanding of God's mission can help believers discern the work to which they are called and equip them for missional witness in and through their work. Importantly, rooting our understanding of vocation and calling in God's mission gives space for new emphases within the conversations related to faith and work, including theologically and contextually grounded emphases on creativity, vocational freedom and vocational discernment along with innovative educational models which can support believers as they navigate their work as participants in God's mission. When believers connect their gifts, talents and creativity with God's work in and for the world in a way that is contextually relevant, it opens up opportunities for transformative witness for both believers and for the organizations they serve.
