1 Corinthians - Head Coverings are Not Perpetual & they were Hair-Buns, with or without Material: Proven Travis Fentiman, 2025-06-14 Is Paul's injunction for women to cover their heads in worship binding today 1 Cor 11 2 16 Most of the Reformed the Scottish covenanters and the Westminster divines in the Reformation and puritan era said No that Paul's ordinance was relative to his culture which used this custom In the most detailed exegetical and theological treatment of this issue since that era Fentiman argues that this view is conclusive from the Word of God The book's Intro and the Overview of the Argument following it will whet your desire to invest the time to look through the rest from which you will reap many rewards To see how Corinthian women covered their heads see the many pictures in the History section on pp 188 98 For a summary of the main points of the whole book see the Summary Conclusions beginning on p 258 Here is the logical structure of the book's main argument Every proposition is thoroughly proven in detail in the book 1 All positive instituted worship must be expressly set down in Scripture or by good and necessary consequence deduced therefrom Westminster Confession of Faith 1 6 2 In Scripture head coverings or the lack thereof bore a variety of contrary meanings and acceptability or not in worship Hence they were clearly cultural 3 Head coverings cannot be taught by pure nature and have no intrinsic value for worshipping God 4 Paul only uses the language of dishonor becometh glory and custom about head coverings which are all things of social decency but do not reflect inherent sins As with head coverings Paul uses imperatives in 1 Cor 7 about things not intrinsically sinful 5 Some apostolic ordinances were circumstantially conditioned and mutable 6 Universal moral reasons given for a practice such as head coverings not eating creeping things Lev 11 41 44 the holy kiss foot washing etc does not necessarily make it perpetual A context is assumed and generals can only bind generally 7 There is nothing in 1 Cor 11 necessitating head coverings to have a different meaning or use in worship than in society 8 There is no necessary warrant Corinthian head coverings were geographically or temporally universal in the apostolic churches but if they were this does not itself make an ordinance to be of positive religion especially as the Greco Roman culture which head coverings were appropriate to was vast 9 Part I s survey of all the relevant Scriptural head covering data consider it for yourself shows there is no express or good and necessary consequence from these texts that Corinthian head coverings were a positive perpetual rite of religion WCF 21 1 beyond circumstances common to human society ordered by nature s light Christian prudence and the Word s general principles WCF 1 6 which things may be culturally relative 10 These things being the case Paul s statement that improper head covering dishonoreth her head v 5 must be not prescriptive but descriptive as the case was in that society which it was Hence Paul s natural and spiritual arguments are contingent on this de facto premise A change of the premise in a different culture where not covering is not dishonoring changes the conclusion The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Gregory Thaumaturgus, Dionysius the Great, Julius Africanus, Anatolius and minor writers, Methodius, Arnobius Alexander Roberts, Sir James Donaldson, Arthur Cleveland Coxe, Allan Menzies, 1890 Latin America Greg Price, 1990 Fascinating series of conversations between the author an Australian journalist and traveller and a clutch of noted Latin American writers Interviews with novelists such as Isabel Allende Mario Vargas Llosa Octavio Paz and Manuel Puig range over literary theory culture and cultural conflict politics and imperialism and a host of other interesting subjects Includes notes on each author and a select bibliography The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Gregory Thaumaturgus, Dionysius the Great, Julius Africanus, Anatolius and minor writers, Methodius, Arnobius ,1899 The Month ,1875 The Fortnightly ,1903 T.P.'s Weekly ,1904 A Digest of the Law of Libel and Slander William Blake Odgers, 1929 The Australian Journal ,1879 American Agriculturist ,1884 Commonweal ,1925 The Agricultural Gazette and Modern Farming ,1884 The Railway and Corporation Law Journal ,1891 Farmers' Review ,1904 A Dictionary of Christian Antiquities William Smith, Samuel Cheetham, 1880 The Christian Witness and Advocate of Bible Holiness ,1899 The Congregationalist ,1895
