

Wiccan Beliefs

Revere the environment and the spirits of the elements: Earth, Air, Fire and Water.

The Divinity has two aspects, the God and the Goddess. Nature is feminine and masculine at the same time. Both are of equal importance.

Gods and spirits can be given different names, because they continue to be the same Divinity.

Wicca can be practiced in a coven as well as in solitary.

Wiccans do not need to build temples. Nature is the perfect and the most auspicious place to perform rituals and gatherings.

There are different traditions within Wicca. Everyone is free to worship in their own way, combining beliefs and rites from different traditions. This is known as Eclectic Wicca.
