Welch, 2015-09-26 Spiritual Building Blocks takes the greatest commandment and uses it as the cornerstone in building a spiritual foundation to help notice God's presence in our everyday lives Part 1 begins by unpacking the greatest commandment into six essential parts God the self our neighbor our head our heart and our hands The opening chapters answer common questions about spirituality and its relationship with religion Part 2 presents a variety of spiritual practices and exercises using our head heart and hands as building blocks to nurture our spiritual lives as we love God the self and our neighbors Some of these practices may be new while others may be familiar but reframed in a new way Personal stories by everyday people illustrate many of these exercises Spiritual Building Blocks was written for individuals or small groups interested in deepening their spiritual lives

The Meaning of Tradition Yves Congar, 2016-12-13 Some Christians claim to reject Tradition in preference to a supposedly Bible only Christianity Catholics on the other hand venerate Tradition yet often without adequately understanding it In this masterful book the great theologian Yves Congar explains why Tradition is an inescapable aspect of a fully biblical Christian faith He explores the various forms of Tradition and discusses the relationship between Scripture and Tradition as well as the role of the Magisterium of the Church The Meaning of Tradition clears up misconceptions held by many Evangelical Christians and even some Catholics on this important subject Congar's study of Tradition greatly contributed to the teaching of Vatican II and to a deeper appreciation of the Church Fathers

Initiation and Spiritual Realization René Guénon, 2004-05 Initiation and Spiritual Realization is the closest thing to a work on spiritual direction Ren Gu non ever wrote touching as it does upon such vital topics as the transmission of initiatic grace the various types and functions of the spiritual master obstacles the aspirant is likely to encounter different modes of contemplation and the degrees of spiritual realization A companion volume to Perspectives on Initiation where Gu non had defined the nature of initiation and of the organizations qualified to transmit it Initiation and Spiritual Realization was the first thematic collection of Gu non s articles to appear after his death And one doctrine expressed in this book stands out as particularly timely that esoterism is not and cannot be a religion in itself since to take it as such is to reduce it to an alternative exoterism and a heterodox one at that Initiatic esoterism can only be legitimately and effectively practiced within the context of one of the established revealed religions
