The World Crisis Winston Churchill, 1927 English/British Naval History to 1815 Eugene L. Rasor, 2004-10-30 The English/British have always been known as the sailor race with hearts of oak, the Royal Navy as the Senior Service and First Line of Defense. It facilitated the motto 'The sun never set on the British Empire'. The Royal Navy has exerted a powerful influence on Great Britain, its Empire, Europe and ultimately the world. This superior annotated bibliography supplies entries that explore the influence of the English/British Navy through its history. This survey will provide a major reference guide for students and scholars at all levels. It incorporates evaluative, qualitative and critical analysis processes, the essence of historical scholarship. Each one of the 4124 annotated entries is evaluated, assessed, analyzed, integrated and incorporated into the historiographical scholarship. If By Chance Major General John Strawson, 2013-07-11 Could Napoleon have won the battle of Waterloo? And what would have happened if he had? Or suppose Nelson had not destroyed the French fleet at Aboukir: would Napoleon have conquered India and become Emperor of the East? What if Hitler had not halted his panzer forces before Dunkirk and had entrapped the entire British Expeditionary Force? How would Churchill have then denied the Wehrmacht? If by chance Hitler had been assassinated in 1944 and the German General Staff taken control, would there have been a totally different kind of surrender? In examining these and other contingencies, Major General Strawson brings his experience of command in war and his skill as a military historian to present us with an enthralling catalogue of chance and speculation while emphasising how profoundly the character of commanders influenced events and how events affected their character. The Illustrated London News, 1913 Sea Magic Esther Meynell, 1916
