Routledge International Handbook of Human Trafficking Rochelle Dalla, Donna Sabella, 2019-09-19 According to the UNODC 2015 human trafficking HT is the fastest growing means by which people are enslaved the fastest growing international crime and one of the largest sources of income for organized criminal networks. It profoundly impacts the physical and mental health of victims, their families and entire communities and is recognized as a crime against humanity. Despite burgeoning interest, education, research and advocacy efforts, a pinnacle handbook devoted to human trafficking and modern day slavery with global focus and multidisciplinary scope does not currently exist. The Routledge International Handbook of Human Trafficking was created to fill this resource gap. Divided into four sections, the Handbook offers the reader a comprehensive and fresh approach via a in depth analyses and opportunities for application through case studies, critical thinking questions and supplemental learning materials. b multidisciplinary linkages with disciplinary overlap across each of the four sections acknowledged and highlighted and c content experts representing multiple segments of society: academia, government, foundation, law enforcement and practice and global vantage points: Australia, Finland, Germany, Netherlands, South Africa, Thailand and the United States. Written by expert scholars, service providers, policy analysts and healthcare professionals, this Handbook is an invaluable resource for those already working in the field as well as for students in any discipline who want to learn or learn more about HT and modern day slavery.

Human Trafficking Under International and Tanzanian Law Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba, 2021-03-13. This book deals with the problem of human trafficking in Tanzania in the light of international law and considers human trafficking as both a criminal offence in Tanzania and a human rights violation within international law in general. The book broadens the reader's understanding of the subject of human trafficking and Tanzania's legal approach to the issue and allows the reader to grasp Tanzania's anti trafficking piecemeal efforts from the 1970s onwards, the reasons that made Tanzania ratify the Protocol to Prevent Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons Especially Women and Children supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and Tanzania's National Assembly's deliberations regarding the enactment of the Anti Trafficking in Persons Act of 2008 and the impact those deliberations have had on the current legal framework of Tanzania. It provides a firsthand critical analysis of the Tanzania anti trafficking law, pointing out its strengths, weaknesses and areas for improvement in a comprehensive manner such as has never been attempted before. The book shares many tips and even insights on how to read and apply Tanzania's 2015 Anti Trafficking Regulations in relation to the main law harmoniously. It also offers complete instructions for common law practitioners, court personnel, researchers and other anti trafficking personnel on how to investigate and prosecute human trafficking, prevent trafficking both lawfully and from occurring as well as assist victims of human trafficking and protect their human rights. Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba is a doctoral researcher in the Faculty of Law of the Humboldt University zu Berlin in Berlin, Germany. The author also lectures at the School of Law of the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania.
