The gender dimension of non-medical use of prescription drugs in Europe and the Mediterranean region Pompidou Group, Council of Europe, 2015-04-13 In recent years the non medical use of prescription drugs NMUPD has caused increasing public concern around the globe Women constitute a special risk category for NMUPD and understanding gender as it relates to this phenomenon is now a critical requirement for effective policy and practice Intended primarily for policy makers and researchers this Pompidou Group publication aims to explore gender specificities in terms of the use and misuse of prescription drugs in Europe and the Mediterranean region Using secondary sources it also seeks to identify gaps in the data available in the area covered and to make recommendations for further research coherent policy development and effective gender sensitive practice This publication is an initial attempt to map this emerging phenomenon and to identify lacunae and avenues for further investigation It constitutes an important resource for those interested in the interaction between gender and drug use

Stopping Child Maltreatment Before it Starts Neil B. Guterman, 2001 Early prevention of child maltreatment is most commonly delivered through home visitation services with the goal of promoting a positive start in parenting to avert potential child abuse and neglect Stopping Child Maltreatment Before It Starts introduces best practice principles for early home visiting examining the contexts from which these strategies arise Beginning with a discussion of the nature and etiology of physical child abuse and neglect Guterman then examines the mechanisms by which child protective and early home visitation services have traditionally operated The book explores best practice principles by providing a detailed inside tour of those practices that have been empirically linked with positive outcomes in serviced families Guterman also discusses in detail ways how home visitation may more adequately address the problem of family substance abuse in reducing child maltreatment risk and ways visitation can attend to social network and community influences and increase parent empowerment An essential text for child welfare courses Stopping Child Maltreatment Before It Starts will also appeal to practitioners and policy makers in the child abuse and neglect field
