regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain

Decoloniality is a perspective that challenges the colonial foundation and neoliberal operations of the westernized university today In Black Feminist Interventions to Decolonize the Westernized University Epistemology Research Methodology and Pedagogy Assata Zerai highlights feminist decoloniality as a tool to promote institutional transformation indirectly through changes in research and teaching in the social sciences directly by centering social justice within higher education Reflecting on three decades of scholarship Zerai adapts principles of decolonial theory to scholarship pedagogy and praxis transnationally focusing on higher education in the USA and South Africa She intentionally centers students who have been racially and culturally excluded in these contexts and provides evidence of university students experiencing intersectional microaggressions including gendered ableist and queerphobic anti Blackness Zerai argues that faculty must appreciate such realities in order to affirm students and create learning environments in which all may thrive Further this book argues that ethical commitments to minoritized students and their communities must be reflected in humanizing research practices Finally Zerai reviews ways in which scholars have begun to move their disciplines from a focus on traditional canons of the modernist era

An Analysis of Educational Challenges in the New South Africa Zandile P. Nkabinde, 1997-04 This book deals with current developments in black education in South Africa since the introduction of Bantu education in the beginning of the 1990s During the period under discussion improvements have been made in black education These improvements are partly due to the significant political changes currently taking place in South Africa that are supposed to mark the end of apartheid Despite these developments much remains to be done in order to remedy the effects of Bantu education In particular providing quality education in black schools will require innovative solutions Proper planning developing new teaching strategies establishing practical educational goals and identifying and using available resources must be controlled and harnessed to a new social order Collaboration and coordination of all professionals particularly blacks will be a necessity The process of change requires black participation in finding solutions to their educational problems this is one of the major challenges facing post apartheid South Africa It is evident that there are more challenges that the post apartheid era will present This book is aimed at providing tentative alternative solutions to black education
