Young Sikhs in a Global World Knut A. Jacobsen, Kristina Myrvold, 2016-03-09 In attempting to carve out a place for themselves in local and global contexts young Sikhs mobilize efforts to construct choose and emphasize different aspects of religious and cultural identification depending on their social setting and context Young Sikhs in a Global World presents current research on young Sikhs with multicultural and transnational life styles and considers how they interpret shape and negotiate religious identities traditions and authority on an individual and collective level With a particular focus on the experiences of second generation Sikhs as they interact with various people in different social fields and cultural contexts the book is constructed around three parts family and home public display and gender and reflexivity and translations New scholarly voices and established academics present qualitative research and ethnographic fieldwork and analyse how young Sikhs try to solve social intellectual and psychological tensions between the family and the expectations of the majority society between Punjabi culture and religious values Debating Islam Samuel M.

Behloul, Susanne Leuenberger, Andreas Tunger-Zanetti, 2014-03-15 Conspicuously Islam has become a key concern in most European societies with respect to issues of immigration integration identity values and inland security As the mere presence of Muslim minorities fails to explain these debates convincingly new questions need to be asked How did Islam become a topic Who takes part in the debates How do these debates influence both individual as well as collective self images and image of others Introducing Switzerland as an under researched object of study to the academic discourse on Islam in Europe this volume offers a fresh perspective on the objective by putting recent case studies from diverse national contexts into comparative perspective Racism, Governance, and Public Policy Katy Sian, Ian Law, S. Sayyid, 2013-06-07 This book presents a new framing of policy debates on the question of racism through a discursive critique of contemporary issues and contexts drawing on a program of new European research carried out between 2010 and 2013 with a central focus on the UK This includes analysis of the discursive construction of Muslims in three contexts the workplace education and the media Informed by a fundamental critique of both the post racial and the limitations of human rights strategies it identifies the ongoing significance of contemporary raciality in governance strategies and develops a new radical agenda for addressing these processes advocating strategies of racism reduction Saving the Security State Inderpal

Grewal, 2017-10-27 In Saving the Security State Inderpal Grewal traces the changing relations between the US state and its citizens in an era she calls advanced neoliberalism Marked by the decline of US geopolitical power endless war and increasing surveillance advanced neoliberalism militarizes everyday life while producing the exceptional citizens primarily white Christian men who reinforce the security state as they claim responsibility for protecting the country from racialized others Under advanced neoliberalism Grewal shows others in the United States strive to become exceptional by participating in humanitarian projects that compensate for the security state's inability to provide for the welfare of its citizens In her analyses of microfinance programs in the global South security moms the murders at a Sikh temple in Wisconsin and the post 9 11 crackdown on Muslim charities Grewal exposes the fissures and contradictions at the heart of the US neoliberal empire and the centrality of race gender and religion to the securitized state Substance Use in Social Work Education and Training Hilda Loughran, Wulf Livingston, 2017-10-02

Substance use has become an increasingly common concern for all aspects of social work practice and especially when working with mental health and vulnerable families This requires all social workers to have sufficient education and training in alcohol and other drugs across a range of settings This volume presents evidence from a number of major studies which examine the current state of social work education in relation to substance use These contextual considerations are complemented by specific applied analyses which explore classroom methodological practice and theoretical considerations within both the UK and America Substance Use in Social Work Education and Training provides a strong evidence base for the effectiveness of appropriately targeted education and support given to social workers It further substantiates calls for a greater inclusion of more on substance use in social work education and curricula This book is based on a special issue of the journal Social Work Education Christian and Sikh John Barnett,2021-01-15 An unprecedented practical insight into the reality of multiple religious participation in this case Christian and Sikh balancing and challenging the more theoretical descriptions that are developing The Sikh World Pashaura Singh,Arvind-Pal Singh Mandair,2023-05-01 The Sikh World is an outstanding guide to the Sikh faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors it contains substantial thematic articles on the dynamic living experiences of the global Sikh community The volume is organised into ten distinct sections History Institutions and Practices Global Communities Ethical Issues Activism Modern Literature and Exegesis Music Visual Art and Architecture Citizenship Sovereignty and the Nation State Diversity and its Challenges Media Education Within these sections interdisciplinary themes such as intellectual history sexuality ecotheology art literature philosophy music cinema medicine science and technology politics and global interactions are explored Integrating textual evidence with Sikh practice this volume provides an authoritative and accessible source of information on all topics of Sikhism The Sikh World will be essential reading to students of Sikh studies South Asian studies and religious studies It will also be of interest to those in related fields such as sociology world philosophies political science anthropology and ethics

Disturbing Remains Michael S. Roth,Charles G. Salas,2001 In Disturbing Remains ten extraordinary scholars focus on the remembrance and representation of traumatic historical events in the twentieth century The volume opens with essays by David William Cohen Veena Das and Philip Gourevitch Their reflections on the narratives framing Robert Ouko s death in Kenya Sikh Hindu violence in India around the time of Indira Gandhi s assassination and the 1994 genocide of Tutsis by Hutus in Rwanda offer fresh insights into the genesis and aftermath of these tragedies The next four essays explore the expression of societal disaster in works of art and ritual Lenin s image Pablo Picasso s Guernica balsa figurines of whites made by the Kuna of Panama and Chinese fertility statuettes after Mao Zedong s Great Leap Forward are the subjects taken up by Leah Dickerman Carlo Ginzburg Carlo Severi and Jun Jing Disturbing Remains closes with three essays about the influence of the dead on the construction of shared identity István Rónavölgyi looks at how Hungarians have dealt with the 1956 revolution and its executed leader and Jürgen Rasmussen and Saul Friedländer contemplate the public memory of the Holocaust in Germany and worldwide Racialization, Islamophobia and Mistaken Identity Jagbir Jhutti-Johal,Hardeep Singh,2019-08-16 Exploring the issue of Islamophobic attacks against Sikhs since 9 11 this book explains the historical religious and legal foundations and frameworks for understanding race hate crime against the Sikh community in the UK Focusing on the backlash that Sikhs in the UK have faced since 9 11 the authors provide a theological and historical backdrop to Sikh identity in the global context critically analysing the occurrences of Islamophobia since 9 11 7 7 and most recently post Brexit and how British Sikhs and the British government have responded and reacted to these incidents The experiences of American Sikhs are also explored and the impact of anti Sikh sentiment upon both these communities is considered Drawing on media reporting government policies the emerging body of inter disciplinary scholarship and empirical research this book contributes to the currently limited body of literature on anti Sikh hate crime and produces ideas for policy makers on how to rectify the situation Providing a better understanding of perceptions of anti Sikh sentiment and its impact this book will of interest to scholars and upper level students working on identity and hate crime and more generally in the fields of Religion and Politics Cultural Studies Media Studies and International Studies South Asian Diaspora, Transnationalism and Identity Ajaya K. Sahoo, Brij Maharaj, 2025-10-20 This book examines how members of the South Asian diaspora one of the world s largest diasporic communities forge complex hybrid identities at the intersection of homeland traditions and host society influences Against the backdrop of significant deterritorialization and cultural diversity it explores the nuanced ways multiple generations navigate between preserving heritage and adapting to new environments Through rich multidisciplinary perspectives the volume investigates The blending of traditional practices with new cultural elements The delicate balance between adaptation and heritage preservation The emergence of unique cultural spaces shaped by transnational connections Organized into two comprehensive sections identity formation and transnational practices this collection offers valuable insights into the lived experiences of South Asian communities worldwide and is essential reading for scholars and students in diaspora studies migration research transnationalism and South Asian cultural studies The chapters in this book were originally published in South Asian Diaspora Media, Crime and Racism Monish Bhatia, Scott Poynting, Waqas Tufail, 2018-04-06 Media Crime and Racism draws together contributions from scholars at the leading edge of their field across three continents to present contemporary and longstanding debates exploring the roles played by media and the state in racialising crime and criminalising racialised minorities Comprised of empirically rich accounts and theoretically informed analysis this dynamic text offers readers a critical and in depth examination of contemporary social and criminal justice issues as they pertain to racialised minorities and the media Chapters demonstrate the myriad ways in which racialised others experience demonisation exclusion racist abuse and violence licensed and often induced by the state and the media Together they also offer original and nuanced analysis of how these processes can be experienced differently dependent on geography political context and local resistance This collection critically reflects on a number of globally significant topics including the vilification of Muslim minorities the portrayal of the refugee crisis and the representations and resistance of Indigenous and Black communities This volume demonstrates that processes of racialisation and criminalisation in media and the state cannot be understood without reference to how they are underscored and inflected by gender and power Above all the contributors to this volume demonstrate the resistance of racialised minorities in localised contexts across the globe against racialisation and criminalisation and in pursuit of racial justice
