Thousand Graduates Ian Howie-Willis,1980 Pacific Universities R. G. Crocombe,1988 The Rise of Pacific Literature Matthew Hayward, Maebh Long, 2024-09-03 In the 1960s and 1970s the staff and students of two newly founded universities in the Pacific Islands helped foster a golden age of Oceanian literature At the University of Papua New Guinea and the University of the South Pacific bold experiments in curriculum design recentered literary studies around a Pacific modernity Rejecting the established British colonial model writer scholars placed Pacific oratory and a growing body of Oceanian writing at the heart of the syllabus From this local core students ventured outward to contemporary postcolonial literatures where they saw modernist techniques repurposed for a decolonizing world Only then did they turn to foundational modernist texts encountered at last as a set of creative tools rather than a canon to be copied or learned by rote The Rise of Pacific Literature reveals the transformative role and radical adaptations of global modernisms in this golden age Maebh Long and Matthew Hayward examine the reading and teaching of Pacific oral narratives European and American modernisms and African Caribbean and Indian literature tracing how Oceanian writers appropriated and reworked key texts and techniques They identify the local innovations and international networks that spurred Pacific literature s golden age by reading crucial works against the poetry prose and plays on the syllabi of the new universities Placing internationally recognized writers such as Albert Wendt Subramani Konai Helu Thaman Marjorie Crocombe and John Kasaipwalova alongside lesser known authors of works published in Oceanian little magazines this book offers a wide ranging new account of Pacific literary history that tells a fresh story about modernism s global itineraries and transformations Pangu Returns to Power Peter King,1989 Examines the political background to the 1982 elections transverses such campaign issues as corruption and extravagance in government relations ith Indonesia divisions in the ruling coalition and party swapping and analyses the national election result and its aftermath in Pangu s parliamentary triumph of August 1982 Biodiversity, biogeography and nature conservation in Wallacea and New Guinea Dmitry Telnov,2015-05-11 Quality Assurance in Higher Education: A Study of Developing Countries David Lim,2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2001 Universities in developing countries have followed their counterparts in developed countries and adopted quality assurance to improve the quality of their activities This text examines the wisdom of such a move when many of the conditions necessary for its success are not present It concludes that quality assurance can be useful in developing countries because it shows how a university s seemingly disparate activities are related to one another to serve a common goal and how the quality of these can best be improved by using an integrated approach Quality assurance also provides more focus and direction to the work of the traditional university system However it must be modified to suit the conditions prevailing in developing countries by being simple in design modest in expectations and realistic in requirements Exchange and

Markets in Early Economic Development John D. Conroy, 2023-05-12 The idea of an informal economy emerged from and is a critique of the ideology of economic development It originated from Keith Hart's recognition of informal economic activity in 1960s Ghana In the context of four colonialisms German British Australian and Dutch this book recounts Hart's effort in 1972 to introduce the informal sector into development planning in Papua New Guinea This was problematic because the market was scarcely institutionalized and traditional modes of exchange persisted stubbornly Rather than conforming with post colonial economic ideology the subjected people pushed back against imposed bureaucracy to practice informal and hybrid modes of economic activity Study Abroad 2006-2007 Unesco, 2006 Study Abroad 2006-2007 contains some 2 900 entries concerning post secondary education and training in all academic and professional fields in countries throughout the world Key features include information on Study opportunities and financial assistance available to students wishing to study in a foreign country National systems of higher education Open and distance learning ODL opportunities Validation of foreign qualifications How to search for quality institutions of higher education including warnings about bogus institutions This is a trilingual edition French English Spanish Managing Animals in New Guinea Paul

Sillitoe, 2004-06-02 Managing Animals in New Guinea analyzes the place of animals in the lives of New Guinea Highlanders Looking at issues of zoological classification hunting of wild animals and management of domesticated ones notably pigs it asks how natural parameters affect people's livelihood strategies and their relations with animals and the wider environment

Tok Ples Skul Scheme in the North Solomons Province Lisa D. Delpit, Graeme Kemelfield, 1985 Tropical Forests Of Oceania Joshua A. Bell, Paige West, Colin Filer, 2015-08-31 The tropical forests of Oceania are an enduring source of concern for indigenous communities for the migrants who move to them for the states that encompass them within their borders for the multilateral institutions and aid agencies and for the non governmental organisations that focus on their conservation Grounded in the perspective of political ecology contributors to this volume approach forests as socially alive spaces produced by a confluence of local histories and global circulations In doing so they collectively explore the multiple ways in which these forests come into view and therefore into being Exploring the local dynamics within and around these forests provides an insight into regional issues that have global resonance Intertwined as they are with cosmological beliefs and livelihoods as sites of biodiversity and Western desire these forests have been and are still being transformed by the interaction of foreign and local entities Focusing on case studies from Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and the

Gambier Islands this volume brings new perspectives on how Pacific Islanders continue to creatively engage with the various processes at play in and around their forests Maring Hunters and Traders Christopher Healey, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Accounting Education for the 21st Century Jane O. Burns, Belverd E. Needles, 2014-06-28 Accounting practice whether in business or government is more dynamic more complex and addresses a wider array of issues than it did as little as five years ago Significant and rapid social political technological and economic changes are taking place in the world economy and it is increasingly recognised that accountants in all countries play a key role in the process of economic development Accounting education is undergoing a thorough review on a worldwide basis and major developments are taking place to produce quality accounting education that can keep pace with dramatic world change This book provides an up to date view of the state of accounting education throughout the world and focusses on the global challenges facing accounting education as we approach the millennium Report to the Vice-Chancellor University of Papua New Guinea.
