Wisdom Vol 8 S No 21 dated May 23 1965 The Dominant African-American Woman Donald Sharief I,2009-04 The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong,2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko,2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa Hope on the Brink Lewis Brogdon,2013-05-29 African Americans have always wrestled with hopelessness Yet in the face of hopelessness African Americans fought for hope that America can be a land of equality opportunity and justice The fight for hope has been difficult and has taken a toll on African Americans Today the signs of hopelessness abound in black communities across the nation as an increasing number of leaders express concern about a pervasive problem that they could not identify Beyond the continuing injustices and inequities linked to systemic racism they recognize a growing internal apathy in African Americans This internal apathy is nihilism the embrace of nothingness meaninglessness and internalized oppression Nihilism has been slowly emerging since the 1980s and is the reason there is an increasing number of blacks who turn to defeating and destructive behaviors that only worsen their plight In nihilism s wake leaders and communities are left trying to help people who have turned on themselves and abandoned hope that things can get better The first step toward hope requires an understanding of hopelessness Only then can we step into a world that pushes people to the brink and hope to make a difference Hope on the Brink offers an exploration into this hopelessness
