White Boy In The Colored Section Finding Myself By Finding Others:

The Playground, 1921 Columbine & Beyond, 2006 Recreation, 1921 Love's Revolution Maria P. P. Root, 2001

When the Baby Boom generation was in college the last miscegenation laws were declared unconstitutional but interracial romances retained an aura of taboo Since 1960 the number of mixed race marriages has doubled every decade Today the trend toward intermarriage continues and the growing presence of interracial couples in the media on college campuses in the shopping malls and other public places draws little notice Love's Revolution traces the social changes that account for the growth of intermarriage as well as the lingering prejudices and false beliefs that oppress racially mixed families For this book author Maria P P Root a clinical psychologist interviewed some 200 people from a wide spectrum of racial and ethnic backgrounds Speaking out about their views and experiences these partners family members and children of mixed race marriages confirm that the barriers are gradually eroding but they also testify to the heartache caused by family opposition and disapproving strangers Root traces race prejudice to the various institutions that were structured to maintain white privilege but the heart of the book is her analysis of what happens when people of different races decide to marry Developing an analogy between families and types of businesses she shows how both positive and negative reactions to such marriages are largely a matter of shared concepts of family rather than individual feelings about race She probes into the identity issues that multiracial children confront and draws on her clinical experience to offer child rearing recommendations for multiracial families Root's Bill of Rights for Racially Mixed People is a document that at once empowers multiracial people and educates those who ominously ask What about the children Love's Revolution paints an optimistic but not idealized picture of contemporary relationships The Ten Truths about Interracial Marriage that close the book acknowledge that mixed race couples experience the same stresses as everyone else in addition to those arising from other people's prejudice or curiosity Their divorce rates are only slightly higher than those of single race couples which suggests that their success or failure at marriage is not necessarily a racial issue And that is a revolutionary idea Author note Maria P P Root Ph D is a clinical psychologist and past President of the Washington State Psychological Association

Toward a New Sociology of Education John Beck, 1978-01-01 By including material from literary philosophical and anthropological sources and by selecting readings which consider educational practice both within and beyond formal educational contexts this book broadens the character of sociological inquiry in education The editors bring together material they have found valuable when working with students of education and DEGREES sociology at all levels Many of these articles and extracts are either inaccessible or have not been reprinted The collection should stimulate inquiry about the assumptions underlying current debates on curriculum streaming school organization methods of teaching and preconceived notions of ability Toward a Sociology of Education develops an alternative theoretical approach to and engages in critical dialogue with mainstream sociology and also points to other theoretical and practical probabilities

Finding Families, Finding

Ourselves Veronica Jane Strong-Boag,2006 In Finding Families Finding Ourselves historian Veronica Strong Boag examines the realities behind idealized pictures of adoptive families rescuing needy children or adoptees fitting seamlessly into new families The first comprehensive examination of the history of adoption in Canada Finding Families Finding Ourselves draws on a broad range of sources from legal cases sociological studies and government policies to fiction and first hand accounts Strong Boag argues that adoption far from being a marginal aspect of Canadian history goes to the heart of who we are as individuals and as a national community With its complicated dance of obligations and rights insiders and outsiders acceptance and rejection adoption reflects the ways in which we as families and as communities have consciously and unconsciously remade ourselves in the course of creating our future BOOK JACKET The Forum Loretta Sutton Metcalf,Walter Hines Page,Joseph Mayer Rice,Frederic Taber Cooper,Arthur Hooley,George Henry Payne,Henry Goddard Leach,1898 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements The Survey ,1914 Around the World in New York Konrad Bercovici,1924 "The" Forum ,1898

Proceedings Joint Commission on Unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South,1920 Adoption in a Color-blind Society Pamela Anne Quiroz,2007 Adoption in a Color blind Society illustrates how the political economy of private domestic adoption intersects with the political economy of racism to generate quite different demands for infants and children of different races and how the private adoption arena responds to these demands This book argues that rather than moving towards a color blind democracy we instead live in a context where race continues to matter substantially particularly in arenas closest to home The Ohio Law Journal ,1882 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1893 Collier's ,1912 American Boy ,1907 American Agriculturist ,1901 The Kindergarten-primary Magazine ,1913 The Delineator R. S. O'Loughlin,H. F. Montgomery,Charles Dwyer,1929 The Banker-farmer ,1916
