The Lord is always with me

Each time the psalmist went to Jerusalem for the feast of Pentecost, and each time he would sing, "The Lord is always with me." He would sing this song when he was in the city, when he was in the country, when he was in the temple, when he was in the house of God. He would sing this song when he was in the city, when he was in the country, when he was in the temple, when he was in the house of God. Basics of the Socratic Method

In November 1984, Diego Hernandez, MD, presented the "Basics of the Socratic Method" to the attendees of the April 1985 meeting. The Socratic method is a teaching technique that involves asking questions to guide students to the correct answer. It is a method of teaching that is based on the idea that knowledge is not simply transmitted from teacher to student, but is instead discovered by the student through a process of questioning and reasoning.
