Whose Pharaohs Whose Pharaohs:

Whose Pharaohs? Donald Malcolm Reid, 2002 A comprehensive history of Egyptian archeology from the origins of the field during the Napoleonic era to World War I Whose Pharaohs?, 2002 Egypt's rich and celebrated ancient past has served many causes throughout history in both Egypt and the West Concentrating on the era from Napoleon's conquest and the discovery of the Rosetta Stone to the outbreak of World War I this book examines the evolution of Egyptian archaeology in the context of Western imperialism and nascent Egyptian nationalism Traditionally histories of Egyptian archaeology have celebrated Western discoverers such as Champollion Mariette Maspero and Petrie while slighting Rifa'a al-Tahtawi Ahmad Kamal and other Egyptians This exceptionally well illustrated and well researched book writes Egyptians into the history of archaeology and museums in their own country and shows how changing perceptions of the past helped shape ideas of modern national identity Drawing from rich archival sources in Egypt the United Kingdom and France and from little known Arabic publications Reid discusses previously neglected topics in both scholarly Egyptology and the popular Egyptomania displayed in world's fairs and Orientalist painting and photography He also examines the link between archaeology and the rise of the modern tourist industry This richly detailed narrative discusses not only Western and Egyptian perceptions of pharaonic history and archaeology but also perceptions of Egypt's Greco-Roman Coptic and Islamic eras Throughout this book Reid demonstrates how the emergence of archaeology affected the interests and self-perceptions of modern Egyptians In addition to uncovering a wealth of significant new material on the history of archaeology and museums in Egypt Reid provides a fascinating window on questions of cultural heritage how it is perceived constructed claimed and contested
