Why Women Kill Homicide And Gender Equality:

Why Women Kill Vickie Jensen, 2001 Traditional homicide indicators are based on male violence and do little to predict when or whom women will kill Vickie Jensen shows that gender equality plays an important role in predicting female homicide patterns Jensen's analysis of the occurrence of women's homicide reveals that lethal violence is most likely when severe gender inequalities exist in the family group Her conclusions establish the clear relationship between political economic legal and social equality for women and the reduction of all forms of domestic violence Defending Battered Women on Trial Elizabeth A. Sheehy, 2013-12-15 In the landmark Lavallee decision of 1990 the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that evidence of battered woman syndrome was admissible in establishing self defence for women accused of killing their abusive partners This book looks at the legal response to battered women who killed their partners in the fifteen years since Lavallee Elizabeth Sheehy uses trial transcripts and a case study approach to tell the stories of eleven women ten of whom killed their partners She looks at the barriers women face to just leaving the various ways in which self defence was argued in these cases and which form of expert testimony was used to frame women's experience of battering Drawing upon a rich expanse of research from many disciplines she highlights the limitations of the law of self defence and the costs to women undergoing a murder trial In a final chapter she proposes numerous reforms In Canada a woman is killed every six days by her male partner and about twelve women per year kill their male partners By illuminating the cases of eleven women this book highlights the barriers to leaving violent men and the practical and legal dilemmas that face battered women on trial for murder Marital Separation and Lethal Domestic Violence Desmond Ellis, Noreen Stuckless, Carrie Smith, 2015-03-05 This book is the first to investigate the effects of participation in separation or divorce proceedings on femicide murder of a female femicide suicide homicide and suicide Because separation is one of the most significant predictors of domestic violence this book is exclusively devoted to theorizing researching and preventing lethal domestic violence or other assaults triggered by marital separation The authors provide evidence supporting the use of an estrangement specific risk assessment and estrangement focused public education to prevent murders and assaults This information is needed not only by instructors in criminal justice and sociology programs but by researchers theorizing about or investigating domestic violence In the world of practitioners family court judges divorce mediators family lawyers prosecutors involved in bail hearings shelter staff and family counselors urgently need this resource Ellis et al include discussion questions and chapter objectives to support learners in the classroom or in community based settings and instructor support material includes PowerPoint lecture slides additional teaching and research resources and a test bank This text advocates convincingly for prevention of domestic violence and gives academics and practitioners the tools they need Women, Murder and Femininity L. Seal, 2010-10-20 Women who kill rupture our assumptions about what a woman is This book explores different socio cultural understandings of women who commit or are accused of murder A wide range of cases are discussed in order to highlight the ways in which such women have been perceived and how such cases reflect important social and cultural shifts

Social Media Homicide Confessions Elizabeth Yardley,2017-09-20 The relationship between crime and social media has become an increasingly important topic in a networked world However the use of social media in relation to violent crime is little understood This unique book by an expert in the field addresses this gap by analysing what those involved in homicide do with social media Using three international cases in which perpetrators confessed to homicide on social media it investigates the practices of those involved providing a groundbreaking conceptual framework of use to criminologists It argues that such confessions convey important insights not only into the individual offender but also the social and cultural context of contemporary homicide

The Emerald International Handbook of Feminist Perspectives on Women's Acts of Violence Stacy Banwell,Lynsey Black,Dawn K. Cecil,Yanyi K. Djamba,Sitawa R. Kimuna,Emma Milne,Lizzie Seal,Eric Y. Tenkorang,2023-08-02 Grounded in feminist scholarship this book upends normative accounts of femme fatale violence to focus beyond the misogyny and the sensationalism and unearth the motivation behind women s roles in homicide terrorism combat and even nationalist movements

Women and Crime Judith Ann Warner,2012-07-19 Drawing on government data and interdisciplinary expertise this timely book seeks to explain why the changing economic and legal status of women has not reduced the gender gap in criminal offending Women and Crime A Reference Handbook examines how women s patterns of offending have changed over time in America from the Colonial period to the present The book sets the stage with a historical overview of women s criminal activity Subsequent chapters cover such topics as changes in women s status and patterns of offending the impact of childhood abuse on the development of criminality and how changes in law the War on Drugs and other crime policy have in fact increased the frequency of women s imprisonment and arrests International issues such as legalization of prostitution sex trafficking and women s involvement in organized crime including drug cartels are also explored Each chapter examines theory research law policy and key players in the evolving response to women s crime patterns Throughout the work the author links women s status victimization and offending patterns and suggests how crime control policy far from saving women is increasingly making it impossible for female offenders to live on the outside

The Cultural and Economic Context of Maternal Infanticide Martha Smithey,2018-11-23 This book examines the social economic and cultural conditions and stressors under which mothers commit infanticide and shows how these conditions affect the ability to meet societal and self perceived expectations of good mothering

The Enigma Woman Kathleen A. Cairns,2007-01-01 Crack shot Enigma woman Good with ponies and pistols A much married woman What if such an unconventional woman and the press unanimously agreed that Nellie May Madison was indeed unconventional were to get away with murder Shortly after her husband s bullet riddled body was found in the couple s Burbank apartment police issued an all points bulletin for the beautiful dark haired widow The ensuing drama unfolded with all the strange twists and turns of a noir crime novel In this intriguing cultural history Kathleen A Cairns tells the true tale of the first woman sentenced to death in California Nellie May Madison Her story offers a glimpse into law and disorder in 1930s Los Angeles while bringing to life a remarkable character whose plight reflects on the status of woman the workings of the media and the judiciary system and the stratification of society in her time An intriguing cultural history Cairns s re creation of the case from murder to trial to aftermath casts an eye forward to our own love hate affair with celebrity crimes and our abiding ambivalence about domestic violence abuse as a defense for murder The Oxford

Handbook of Criminology Mike Maguire,Rodney Morgan,Robert Reiner,2007 teachers and students of criminology and is a sourcebook for professionals Women Criminals Vickie Jensen,2011-11-10 A unique two volume study that examines female crime and the women who commit it The two volume Women Criminals An Encyclopedia of People and Issues addresses both key topics and key figures in women s crime The first volume provides topical essays about areas critical to the understanding of female criminals such as the definition of women s crime explanations of women s criminality ethnic and age diversity in female criminals and responses of the criminal justice system The second volume comprises biographical entries profiling women who are obviously criminals such as Aileen Wuornos and Myra Hindley and also women who were victims of circumstance unjust laws or narrowly applied definitions of crime such as Rosa Parks Harriet Tubman and Sophie Scholl In addition to highlighting the breadth of women s criminality these portraits provide a holistic multifaceted understanding of the dynamics of women s crime and why it occurs connecting the individual stories to the larger social scientific perspectives Care has been taken to include the women s own voices and perspectives where possible and to address the intentions and reasoning of the system that responded to their criminality CRIMINAL PSYCHOLOGY

Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2010-09-16 With an engaging writing style that has made it a popular choice at both 2 and 4 year schools the Third Edition of Anna Leon Guerrero's Social Problems textbook clearly presents contemporary social problems and addresses their consequences while emphasizing community involvement by both individuals and groups to achieve real solutions With an overarching focus on social inequalities this proven text provides a platform for discussion that encourages critical thinking through compelling illustrations boxed features learning checks discussion questions and online learning tools all designed to inspire hope rather than simply present a disheartening parade of maladies

The Practice of Execution in Canada Ken Leyton-Brown, 2010-04-10 It is easy to forget that the death penalty was an accepted aspect of Canadian culture and criminal justice from Confederation until 1976 The Practice of Execution in Canada is not about what led some to the gallows and others to escape it Rather it examines how the routine rituals and practices of education can be seen as a crucial social institution Drawing on hundreds of case files Ken Leyton Brown shows that from trial to interment the practice of execution was constrained by law and tradition Despite this however the institution was not rigid Criticism and reform pushed executions out of the public eye and in so doing stripped them of meaningful ritual and made them more vulnerable to criticism Comprehensive and absorbing this groundbreaking study is for anyone who wants a deeper understanding of contemporary debates on capital punishment

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting

The Oxford Handbook of Gender, Sex, and Crime Rosemary Gartner, Bill McCarthy, 2014-05-14 Research on gender sex and crime today remains focused on topics that have been a mainstay of the field for several decades but it has also recently expanded to include studies from a variety of disciplines a growing number of countries and on a wider range of crimes The Oxford Handbook of Gender Sex and Crime reflects this growing diversity and provides authoritative overviews of current research and theory on how gender and sex shape crime and criminal justice responses to it The editors Rosemary Gartner and Bill McCarthy have assembled a diverse cast of criminologists historians legal scholars psychologists and sociologists from a number of countries to discuss key concepts and debates central to the field The Handbook includes examinations of the historical and contemporary patterns of women s and men s involvement in crime as well as biological psychological and social science perspectives on gender sex and criminal activity Several essays discuss the ways in which sex and gender influence legal and popular reactions to crime An important theme throughout The Handbook is the intersection of sex and gender with ethnicity class age peer groups and community as influences on crime and justice Individual chapters investigate both conventional topics such as domestic abuse and sexual violence and topics that have only recently drawn the attention of scholars such as human trafficking honor killing gender violence during war state rape and genocide The Oxford Handbook of Gender Sex and Crime offers an unparalleled and comprehensive view of the connections among gender sex and crime in the United States and in many other countries Its insights illuminate both traditional areas of study in the field and pathways for developing cutting edge research questions

Rethinking Homicide Terance D. Miethe, Wendy C. Regoeczi, Kriss A. Drass, 2004-01-19 Using multiple data sources and methods this book involves a micro historical analysis of the nature of change and stability in homicide situations over time It focuses on the homicide situation as the unit of analysis and explores similarities and differences in the context of homicide for different social groups For example using Qualitative Comparative Analysis we investigate whether various social groups e g men vs women teenagers vs adults strangers vs intimates Blacks vs Whites kill under qualitatively different circumstances and if so what are the characteristics of these unique profiles The analysis of over 400 000 US homicides is supplemented with qualitative analysis of narrative accounts of homicide events to more fully investigate the structure and process underlying these lethal situations Our findings of unique and common homicide situations across different time periods and social groups are then discussed in terms of their implications for criminological theory and public policy

Contested Criminalities in Zimbabwean Fiction Tendai Mangena, 2018-12-07 This book addresses the ways in which writers deploy the trope of contested criminality to expose Zimbabwe s socially and politically oppressive cultures in a wide range of novels and short stories published in English between 1994 and 2016 Some of the most influential authors that are examined in this book are Yvonne Vera Petina Gappah NoViolet Bulawayo Brian Chikwava Christopher Mlalazi Tendai Huchu and Virginia Phiri The author uses the Zimbabwean experience to engage with critical issues facing the African continent and the world providing a thoughtful reading of contemporary debates on illegal migration homophobia state criminality and gender inequalities The thematic focus of the book represents a departure from what Schulze Engler notes elsewhere as postcolonial discourse s habit of suggesting that the legacies of colonialism and the predominance of the global North are responsible for injustice in the Global South Using the context of Zimbabwe it is shown that colonialism is not the only image of violence and injustice but that there are other forms of injustice that are of local origin Throughout the book it is argued that in speaking about contested criminalities writers call attention to the fact that laws are violated some laws are unjust and some crimes are henceforth justified In this sense crime in justice and the law are portrayed as unstable concepts

Border Killers Elizabeth Villalobos, 2024-05-14 Border Killers delves into how recent Mexican creators have reported analyzed distended and refracted the increasingly violent world of neoliberal Mexico especially its versions of masculinity By looking to the insights of artists writers and filmmakers Elizabeth Villalobos offers a path for making sense and critiquing very real border violence in contemporary Mexico Villalobos focuses on representations of border killers in literature film and theater The author develops a metaphor of maquilization to describe the mass production of masculine violence as a result of neoliberalism The author demonstrates that the killer is an interchangeable cog in a societal factory of violence whose work is to produce dead bodies By turning to cultural narratives Villalobos seeks to counter the sensationalistic and stereotyped media depictions of border residents as criminals The cultural works she examines instead indict the Mexican state and the global economic system for producing agents of violence Focusing on both Mexico's northern and southern borders Border Killers uses Achille Mbembe's concept of necropolitics and various theories of masculinity to argue that contemporary Mexico is home to a form of necropolitical masculinity that has flourished in the neoliberal era and made the exercise of death both profitable and necessary for the functioning of Mexico's state cartel corporate governance matrix

The Perpetrator-Victim Relationship: An Important Clue to Understanding Intimate Partner Homicide in China Shuhong Zhao, 2022-01-15 This book is devoted to illustrating the significance of perpetrator victim relationship including its status and state in understanding intimate partner homicide IPH in the context of China today after comparing with the findings in the previous studies By analyzing the correlation between intimate relationships as a focal variable and other variables such as IPH characteristics and risk factors a deeper understanding of IPH in China today has emerged Finally this book shows that many perpetrators and victims had intimate relationships with people outside their marriages as the main reason for the rapid increase in the number of instances of IPH which seems to be in tandem with China's rapid modernization and urbanization Presenting the sole academic research that closely investigates the characteristics of intimate partner homicide in modern China the book is a valuable resource for not only for the Chinese government but also for Chinese and international researchers
