Traditional Justice And Reconciliation After Violent Conflict Learning From African Experiences:

Traditional Justice and Reconciliation After Violent Conflict, 2008 Traditional Justice and Reconciliation After Violent Conflict Lucien Huyse, Mark Salter, 2008 This book presents the findings of a major comparative study examining the role played by traditional justice mechanisms in dealing with the legacy of violent conflict in Africa It focuses on case studies of five countries Rwanda Mozambique Uganda Sierra Leone and Burundi that are used as the basis for outlining conclusions and options for future policy development in the related areas of post conflict reconstruction democracy building and development Traditional Justice Reconciliation After Violent Conflict suggests that in some circumstances traditional mechanisms can effectively complement conventional judicial systems and represent a real potential for promoting justice reconciliation and a culture of democracy At the same time it cautions against unrealistic expectations of traditional structures and offers a sober evidence based assessment of both the strengths and the weaknesses of traditional conflict management mechanisms within the broader framework of post conflict social reconstruction efforts The book is intended to serve both as a general knowledge resource and as a practitioner s guide for national bodies seeking to employ traditional justice mechanisms as well as external agencies aiming to support such processes Oxford Handbook of Transitional Justice, 2025-08-15 The Oxford Handbook of Transitional Justice is an authoritative guide to the rapidly growing domain of transitional justice the practices and processes of reckoning pursued in the aftermath of historic injustice Since the neologism s coining in the late 1990s transitional justice has become one of the 21st century s most influential practices of international humanitarianism However transitional justice projects often conceal the very violence they are intended to address or even inflict further violence on victims of atrocities Across 48 genre bending chapters the Handbook explores articulates and advances a multifaceted critique of transitional justice Ranging innovatively across space and time it interrogates the nature and legacies of the justice cascade that the prosecution of international crimes is said to have inspired An interdisciplinary cast of leading scholars questions the meaning and efficacy of transitional justice s modalities which range from archives to courts from memorials to reparations In so doing this volume s authors critically challenge the panglossian orthodoxies that have accumulated and ossified around efforts to come to terms with violent pasts from colonialism to genocide This global endeavor is not one of tear down however Rather it points toward a reimagined project that is more clear eyed about the promises of transitional justice and its inherent limits A definitive work on the subject The Oxford Handbook of Transitional Justice is essential reading for students scholars and practitioners interested in practices of reckoning Peace, Security and Post-conflict Reconstruction in the Great Lakes Region of Africa

Lumumba-Kasongo, Tukumbi, 2017-11-28 The Great Lakes region of Africa is characterized by protest politics partial democratization political illegitimacy and unstable economic growth Many of the countries that are members of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region ICGLR which are Burundi Angola Central African Republic Democratic Republic of the Congo Republic of the Congo Kenya Uganda Rwanda Sudan South Sudan Tanzania and Zambia have experienced political violence and bloodshed at one time or another While a few states have been advancing electoral democracy environmental protection and peaceful state building the overall intensity of violence in the region has led to civil wars invasion genocide dictatorships political instability and underdevelopment Efforts to establish sustainable peace meaningful socio economic development and participatory democracy have not been quite successful Using various methodologies and paradigms this book interrogates the complexity of the causes of these conflicts and examines their impact and implications for socio economic development of the region The non consensual actions related to these conflicts and imperatives of power struggles supported by the agents of savage capitalism have paralysed efforts toward progress The book therefore recommends new policy frameworks within regionalist lenses and neo realist politics to bring about sustainable peace in the region

An Introduction to Transitional Justice Olivera Simić, 2020-07-30 The Second Edition of An Introduction to Transitional Justice provides a comprehensive overview of transitional justice judicial and non judicial measures implemented by societies to redress legacies of massive human rights abuse Written by some of the leading experts in the field it takes a broad interdisciplinary approach to the subject addressing the dominant transitional justice mechanisms as well as key themes and challenges faced by scholars and practitioners Using a wide historic and geographic range of case studies to illustrate key concepts and debates and featuring discussion questions and suggestions for further reading this is an essential introduction to the subject for students

Reconciling Indonesia Birgit Bräuchler, 2009-09-10 Promoting an interdisciplinary examination of Indonesia this volume goes beyond a mere political and legal approach to reconciliation It offers new understandings of bottom up reconciliation approaches and the cultural dimension of reconciliation

Research Handbook on Transitional Justice Cheryl Lawther, Luke Moffett, 2023-08-14 Providing a refreshing take on transitional justice this second edition Research Handbook brings together an expanse of scholarly expertise to reconsider how societies deal with gross human rights violations structural injustices and mass violence Contextualised by historical developments it covers a diverse range of concepts actors and mechanisms of transitional justice while shedding light on new and emerging areas in the field

Navigating Local Transitional Justice Laura S. Martin, 2023-05-11 In post war Sierra Leone a range of transitional justice mechanisms were implemented to address experiences of conflict violence and human rights violations Much of the research on local transitional justice processes has focused on the work of organisations failing to acknowledge how individual and communal dynamics shape and are shaped by these programs Drawing on original fieldwork in Sierra Leone Laura S Martin moves beyond discussions measuring effectiveness and considers how people navigate their circumstances in conflict and post conflict societies Developing the idea of recognised and unrecognised transitional justice processes Martin uses Fambul Tok as an example of a recognised local transitional justice program and shows how ordinary Sierra Leoneans appropriated Fambul Tok s agenda for their own purposes Ultimately this book highlights the crucial role of agency and the diverse range of actors involved in transitional justice processes Justice as Martin powerfully argues is not something that happens to or for people but is enacted by individuals and communities Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model Securitizing Youth Marisa O. Ensor, 2021-04-23 Securitizing Youth offers new insights on young people s engagement in a wide range of contexts related to the peace and security field It presents empirical findings on the challenges and opportunities faced by young women and men in their efforts to build more peaceful inclusive and environmentally secure societies The chapters included in this edited volume examine the diversity and complexity of young people s engagement for peace and security in different countries across the globe and in different types and phases of conflict and violence including both conflict affected and relatively peaceful societies Chapter contributors young peacebuilders and seasoned scholars and practitioners alike propose ways to support youth s agency and facilitate their meaningful participation in decision making The chapters are organized around five broad thematic issues that correspond to the 5 Pillars of Action identified by UN Security Council Resolution 2250 Lessons learned are intended to inform the global youth peace and security agenda so that it better responds to on the ground realities hence promoting more sustainable and inclusive approaches to long lasting peace The International Criminal Court at the Mercy of Powerful States Res Schuerch, 2017-07-15 This book aims to investigate whether and if so how an institution designed to bring to justice perpetrators of the most heinous crimes can be regarded a tool of oppression in a neo colonial sense To do so it re-invents the concept of neo colonialism which is traditionally associated more with economic or political implications from an international criminal law perspective combining historical political and legal analyses Allegations of neo colonialism in relation to the International Criminal Court ICC became widespread after the Court had issued an arrest warrant against the Sudanese President Omar Al Bashir in 2009 While the Court since its entry into function in 2002 has been confronted with criticism from various corners the neo colonialism controversy was sparked by African stakeholders Unlike other contributions in this domain thus this book provides a Western perspective on an issue more often addressed from an African standpoint with the intention of distinguishing itself from the more political and emotive and sometimes superficial arguments that exist within critical legal approaches towards the ICC The subject matter will primarily be of interest to scholars of international criminal law or those operating at the intersection of law and politics history nationals of African states and from other parts of the world professionally interested and or involved in international criminal law and justice and the ICC and governmental and non governmental organizations Secondly the book will also appeal and speak to critical legal scholars and those interested in historical legal analysis Res Schuerch is a Swiss lawyer specialized in the field of International Criminal Law and the ICC He previously worked as a researcher at the University of Amsterdam and as an academic assistant at the University of Zurich

The Cultural Dimension of Peace Birgit Bräuchler, 2015-08-03 This study outlines the emerging cultural turn in Peace Studies and provides a critical understanding of the cultural dimension of reconciliation Taking an anthropological view on decentralization and peacebuilding in Indonesia it sets new standards for an interdisciplinary research field

Culture in the Domains of Law René Provost, 2017-02-02 This book examines whether law as a cultural practice can apply across cultural boundaries to bind people with vastly different beliefs and practices

Courts in Conflict Nicola Palmer, 2015-03-18 Courts in Conflict focuses on the practices of the United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda ICTR the national Rwandan courts and the gacaca community courts in post genocide Rwanda It emphasizes that although the courts are compatible in law an interpretive cultural analysis indicates how and why they have often conflicted in practice The author s research is derived from 182 interviews with judges lawyers and a group of witnesses and suspects from within all three of the post genocide courts This rich empirical material shows that the judges and lawyers inside each of the courts offer notably different interpretations of Rwanda s transitional justice processes illuminating divergent legal cultures that help explain the constraints on the courts effective cooperation and evidence gathering

Peace Studies for Sustainable Development in Africa Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2022-10-26 This book presents a snapshot of a major challenge and shares subjective views on various areas of conflict in Africa and the diverse theoretical and practical efforts to achieve peace Following an essential review of several real world conflict contexts on the African continent and attempts to come to terms with them critically as a first step the book explores the lessons learned to date with regard to peace studies in Africa

Public administration, democracy and peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala ,2025-08-01 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC presents a striking paradox vast natural and mineral wealth coexist with persistent poverty weak infrastructure and fragile institutions Kiyala s four part scholarly book explores these tensions aiming to identify practical and effective strategies to address the country s complex challenges To meaningfully confront the DRC s enduring crises Kiyala argues that public administration must engage with key drivers of insecurity and instability These include 1 Employing the Dodd Frank Act s Section 1502 on conflict minerals particularly the impact of the de facto embargo on the 3Ts tin tungsten and tantalum 2 The question of Congolese citizenship for the Banyamulenge Tutsi communities of the DRC and the need for legislative clarity 3 Regional and international collaboration to address ongoing threats to peace such as the remnants of the FDLR and other armed groups 4 The complex integration of the M23 movement and other armed factions into the national army through effective screening vetting and identification processes 5 The revitalisation of transitional justice reconciliation and national healing efforts Without addressing these core issues with resolve and coherent strategies efforts toward lasting peace and sustainable development will remain elusive The book also introduces the peacebuilding evolution systems theory PBEST a novel framework that integrates peacebuilding theory with insights from neuroscience The PBEST emphasises the progressive development of peace from individual disposition to collective global action for domestic and international security Rich in empirical analysis this scholarly work offers significant insights not only for scholars and researchers but also for practitioners and policymakers in African studies political science public administration and conflict resolution

Advocating Transitional Justice in Africa Jasmina Brankovic,Hugo van der Merwe,2018-01-30 This edited volume examines the role of local civil society in shaping understandings and processes of transitional justice in Africa a nursery of transitional justice ideas for well over two decades It brings together practitioners and scholars with intimate knowledge of these processes to evaluate the agendas and strategies of local civil society and offers an opportunity to reflect on lessons learnt along the way The contributors focus on the evolution and effectiveness of transitional justice interventions providing a glimpse into the motivations and inner workings of major civil society actors The book presents an African perspective on transitional justice through a compilation of country specific and thematic analyses of agenda setting and lobbying efforts It offers insights into state civil society relations on the continent which shape these agendas The chapters present case studies from Southern Central East West and North Africa and a range of moments and types of transition In addition to historical perspective the chapters provide fresh and up to date analyses of ongoing transitional justice efforts that are key to defining the future of how the field is understood globally in theory and in practice Endorsements This great volume of written work Advocating Transitional Justice in Africa The Role of Civil Society does what virtually no other labor of the intellect has done heretofore Authored by movement activists and thinkers in the fields of human rights and transitional justice the volume wrestles with the complex place and roles of transitional justice in the project of societal reconstruction in Africa This volume will serve as a timely and thought provoking guide for activists thinkers and policy makers as well as students of transitional justice interested in the tension between the universal and the particular in the arduous struggle for liberation Often civil society actors in Africa have been accused of consuming the ideas of others but not producing enough of their own This volume makes clear the spuriousness of this claim and firmly plants an African flag in the field of ideas Makau Mutua

Transitional Justice and Peacebuilding on the Ground

Chandra Lekha Sriram, 2013 This book seeks to refine our understanding of transitional justice and peacebuilding and long term security and reintegration challenges after violent conflicts As recent events following political change during the so called Arab Spring demonstrate demands for accountability often follow or attend conflict and political transition While traditionally much literature and many practitioners highlighted tensions between peacebuilding and justice recent research and practice demonstrates a turn away from the supposed peace vs justice dilemma This volume examines the complex relationship between peacebuilding and transitional justice through the lenses of the increased emphasis on victim centred approaches to justice and the widespread practices of disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR of excombatants While recent volumes have sought to address either DDR or victim centred approaches to justice none has sought to make connections between the two much less to place them in the larger context of the increasing linkages between transitional justice and peacebuilding This book will be of great interest to students of transitional justice peacebuilding human rights war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Theorizing Transitional Justice Claudio Corradetti, Nir

Eisikovits, 2016-02-17 This book addresses the theoretical underpinnings of the field of transitional justice something that has hitherto been lacking both in study and practice With the common goal of clarifying some of the theoretical profiles of transitional justice strategies the study is organized along crucial intersections evaluating aspects connected to the genealogy the nature the scope and the most appropriate methodology for the study of transitional justice The chapters also take up normative and political considerations pertaining to specific transitional instruments such as war crime tribunals truth commissions administrative purges reparations and historical commissions Bringing together some of the most original writings from established experts as well as from promising young scholars in the field the collection will be an essential resource for researchers academics and policy makers in Law Philosophy Politics and Sociology
