The Korean Africa Byongchan Yoon, 2021-11-17 Africa Yoon n e Engo was about to turn 30 She was a celebrated activist working in Manhattan and around the world when she found she had gained 120 pounds and was obese She realized she needed a life beyond her work and dreamed about having a husband and children For her dream to come to fruition she must work on herself to achieve her goal The activist starts on the road toward the greatest cause of her career to save herself and decides she will do a spiritual and physical makeover to find self love in hopes it may lead to true love One afternoon at the Asian grocery store H Mart a Korean grandmother calls her fat After the initial embarrassment of the public moment the two begin an unusual friendship that leads her to eating kimchi and that moment changes everything This memoir is full of culture food inspiration and travel in this ugly duckling turned swan transformation story not unlike the self discovery and romance vein of Sex and the City

Kenya's Running Women Michelle M Sikes, 2023-12-01 Since Pauline Konga's breakthrough performance at the 1996 summer Olympics in Atlanta the world has become accustomed to seeing Kenyan women medal at major championships sweep marathons and set world records Yet little is known about the pioneer generation of women who paved the way for Kenya's reputation as an international powerhouse in women's track and field In Kenya's Running Women A History historian and former professional runner Michelle M Sikes details the triumphs and many challenges these women faced from the advent of Kenya's athletics program in the colonial era through the professionalization of running in the 1980s and 1990s Sikes reveals how over time running became a vehicle for Kenyan women to expand the boundaries of acceptable female behavior Kenya's Running Women demonstrates the necessity of including women in histories of African sport and of incorporating sport into studies of African gender and nation building

Taboo Jon Entine, 2008-08-05 In virtually every sport in which they are given opportunity to compete people of African descent dominate East Africans own every distance running record Professional sports in the Americas are dominated by men and women of West African descent Why have blacks come to dominate sports Are they somehow physically better And why are we so uncomfortable when we discuss this Drawing on the latest scientific research journalist Jon Entine makes an irrefutable case for black athletic superiority We learn how scientists have used numerous bogus scientific methods to prove that blacks were either more or less superior physically and how racist scientists have often equated physical prowess with intellectual deficiency Entine recalls the long hard road to integration both on the field and in society And he shows why it isn't just being black that matters it makes a huge difference as to where in Africa your ancestors are from Equal parts sports science and examination of why this topic is so sensitive Taboo is a book that will spark national debate The Handbook of Sports Medicine and Science John A. Hawley, 2008-04-15 This title in the acclaimed Handbook of Sports Medicine and Sports Science provides a clearly presented one stop source of information on all aspects of the sport The nutritional and training strategies in the book are aimed at improving a runner's performance while the section on the medical care of the runner will help prevent injuries and aid in the correct diagnosis and management of basic athletic trauma The text contains contributions from a team of world leaders in their respective fields to provide a truly international perspective on this sporting specialty Running Science Owen Anderson, 2013 A comprehensive guide to all things running explains running physiology biomechanics medicine genetics biology psychology training and racing The Anthropology of Sport and Human Movement Robert R. Sands, Linda R. Sands, 2012-01-01 The Anthropology of Sport and Human Movement represents a collection of work that reveals and explores the often times dramatic relationship of our biology and culture that is inextricably woven into a tapestry of movement patterns It explores the underpinning of human movement reflected in play sport games and human culture from an evolutionary perspective and contemporary expression of sport and human movement The Complete History of Cross-Country Running Andrew Boyd Hutchinson, 2018-01-16 In The Complete History of Cross Country Running author Andrew Boyd Hutchinson captures the full history of cross country running from the early 1800s to the present day on both a national and international scale It includes chronicles of legendary teams inspirational tales of achievement controversies and interviews with record breaking runners past and present From Walter George and Alfred Shrubbs to Steve Prefontaine Bill Rogers and Galen Rupp and everyone in between Hutchinson uncovers all angles via training logs discussions with coaches and the review of newspaper archives for race results and forgotten storylines He offers commentary from Olympians such as David Torrence and Shannon Rowbury amongst others Along the way the book addresses the following topics How cross country began in England How the sport found its way to American colleges and universities The birth of the International Cross Country Championships All the close events including the 2012 race between Molly Huddle and Sara Hall at the US National Cross Country Championship And so much more Runner's World, 2006-05 Runner's World magazine aims to help runners achieve their personal health fitness and performance goals and to inspire them with vivid memorable storytelling Determined Runners Justin Lagat, 2016-07-22 This book is all about Running in Kenya It is a resourceful insight into what happens inside Kenya's high altitude training camps in Kenya Practical Sports Nutrition Louise Burke, 2007 Practical Sports Nutrition provides detailed sport specific advice that enables you to approach individual athletes and teams with an understanding of their sport and unique nutritional needs More Fire Toby Tanser, 2008 An

Essential Book for Runners of All Abilities All of the Author s Proceeds Go to Shoes4Africa to Support the Construction of Children s Hospitals in Kenya Kenya has produced the greatest concentration of world class runners and fellow athletes have long been intrigued by their remarkable success Toby Tanser has devoted much of his professional career living and training among Kenyan runners in order to better understand the unique status of East African athletes In More Fire How to Run the Kenyan Way the author builds upon the success of his acclaimed Train Hard Win Easy the first book to provide insights into the Kenyan magic that so many runners and coaches had sought Instead of special foods or secret techniques Tanser found that Kenyan runners simply trained incredibly hard much harder than anyone had realized By adapting their training regime which includes three workouts a day and following their example runners whether novices or champions are able to improve both their performance and enjoyment in running For those training for a marathon or any other distance race this book is both practical and inspirational Divided into four parts the book begins with a description of running in Kenya the landscape the physical conditions and the people the second part concentrates on details of Kenyan training camps training methods and their typical training diet the third profiles individual runners and coaches from the past and present with each explaining their approach to running so that readers can gain further insight into their methods The book ends with a discussion on how the reader can adapt Kenyan training practices for their own running requirements More Fire How to Run the Kenyan Way is essential reading for runners of all levels and experience Feet, Don't Fail Me Now Ben Kaplan,2014 Work out and training tips plus music to inspire from the author s personal experiences running foot races Track and Field Coaches Review ,1999
