Traversee De La Mangrove Francophone

Tyler Stovall, Georges Van Den Abbeele

Traversee De La Mangrove Francophone:

Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi, 2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a similar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures

Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal, H Adlai Murdoch, 2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural

Francophone Literatures M. H. Offord, 2001 Unique in its analysis both of literary and linguistic techniques this text draws together extracts from novels written in French by writers from Francophone areas outside Europe including North Africa Black Africa the Caribbean and North America

French Civilization and Its Discontents Tyler Stovall, Georges Van Den Abbeele, 2003-10-22 What happens when the study of French is no longer coterminous with the study of France French Civilization and Its Discontents explores the ways in which considerations of difference especially colonialism postcolonialism and race have shaped French culture and French studies in the modern era Rejecting traditional assimilationist notions of French national identity contributors to this groundbreaking volume demonstrate how literature history and other aspects of what is considered French civilization have been shaped by global processes of creolization and differentiation This book ably demonstrates the necessity of studying France and the Francophone world together and of recognizing not only the presence of France in the Francophone world but also the central place occupied by the Francophone world in world literature and history

Francophone Postcolonial Studies , 2003 L'intertexte à l'oeuvre

dans les littératures francophones Martine Mathieu-Job, C.E.L.F.A. (Center : Université Michel de Montaigne-Bordeaux III), 2003 Le C E L F A avait inscrit dans son programme quadriennal 1998 2002 un axe de recherches portant sur l'intertextualité Deux journées d'études tenues les 31 mars 2000 et 11 mai 2001 ont balisé le parcours de travail la plupart des textes publiés ici sont issus de communications présentées dans ce cadre D'autres s'y sont adjoints poursuivant la réflexion qui connaît sinon un aboutissement du moins une amplification certaine dans le colloque L'entredire francophone qui sera organisé les 12 13 et 14 décembre 2002 Bordeaux Le propos vise scruter et privilégier le dialogue entre les différentes littératures francophones l'hypothèse de départ tant que dans cette re-postcoloniale le maintien d'une pratique commune du français dans des espaces géographiques et culturels variés devrait permettre aux écrivains comme aux lecteurs de passer les frontières dans tous sens et non plus seulement dans un tropisme ramenant un centre français

The Art and Genius of Anne Hébert Janis L. Pallister, 2001 This book shows through criticism the richness the complexity and the far reaching significance of the writings of Anne Hébert the Québécois novelist and poet who first achieved recognition in the 1940s and 50s The writings by such notables as Gaetan Brulotte Neil Bishop Annabelle Rea Lori Saint Martin Roseanna Dufault and many others are variously in English and in French Prefaced by renowned Hébertian scholar Janet Pallister and introduced by Pallister's essay on the life and accomplishment of Anne Hébert the work is accompanied by a large bibliography of the works of Anne Hébert

Maryse Conde and the Space of Literature Eva Sansavior, 2017-12-02 The Guadeloupean writer and critic Maryse Conde has for the last twenty five years divided her time between her native Guadeloupe and the United States If the author's work has attracted much critical attention in the United States it is the fictional works that have been the focus of this attention with these predominantly read in the light of political themes such as identity and resistance In these intelligent and sensitive readings Eva Sansavior argues in favour of adopting a broader thematic and generic approach to the author's work Sansavior accounts for the multiple and oblique uses of literature in the Conde's literary and critical work tracking its complex interactions with tradition reception politics and autobiography and also the singular possibilities that these interactions present for reimagining the ideas of politics literature identity and ultimately the nature of critical practice itself

Postcolonial Representations Françoise Lionnet, 2018-07-05 Passionate allegiances to competing theoretical camps have stifled dialogue among today's literary critics asserts Françoise Lionnet Discussing a number of postcolonial narratives by women from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds she offers a comparative feminist approach that can provide common ground for debates on such issues as multiculturalism universalism and relativism Lionnet uses the concept of métissage or cultural mixing in her readings of a rich array of Francophone and Anglophone texts by Michelle Cliff from Jamaica Suzanne Dracius Pinalie from Martinique Ananda Devi from Mauritius Maryse Conde and Myriam Warner Vieyra from Guadeloupe Gayl Jones from the United States Bessie Head from Botswana Nawal El Saadawi from Egypt and Leïla Sebbar from Algeria and France Focusing on themes of exile and displacement and on narrative treatments of culturally sanctioned excision polygamy and murder Lionnet examines the psychological and social mechanisms that allow individuals to negotiate conflicting cultural influences In her view these writers reject the opposition between self and other and base their self portrayals on a m tissage of forms and influences Lionnet s perspective has much to offer critics and theorists whether they are interested in First or Third World contexts American or French critical perspectives essentialist or poststructuralist epistemologies

The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L. Williams, 2007-09-21 In this expertly crafted richly detailed guide Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural political and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II In addition to works originally composed in English Williams covers novels written in Spanish Portuguese French Dutch and Haitian Creole and traces the profound influence of modernization revolution and democratization on the writing of this era Beginning in 1945 Williams introduces major trends by region including the Caribbean and U S Latino novel the Mexican and Central American novel the Andean novel the Southern Cone novel and the novel of Brazil He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s led by Jorge Luis Borges s reaffirmation of the right of invention and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil the Generation of the Crack in Mexico and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors coverage of major topics and brief introductions to individual novels It also addresses such areas as women s writing Afro Latin American writing and magic realism The guide s final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel national literary traditions and the work of individual authors From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban violence and globalization The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 presents a comprehensive accessible portrait of a thoroughly diverse and complex branch of world literature
