Treffpunkt Berlin Manual:

Television Beyond and Across the Iron Curtain Kirsten Bönker, Sven Grampp, Julia Obertreis, 2016-09-23 From the mid 1950s onwards the rise of television as a mass medium took place in many East and West European countries As the most influential mass medium of the Cold War television triggered new practices of consumption and media production and of communication and exchange on both sides of the Iron Curtain This volume leans on the long neglected fact that even during the Cold War era television could easily become a cross border matter As such it brings together transnational perspectives on convergence zones observations collaborations circulations and interdependencies between Eastern and Western television In particular the authors provide empirical ground to include socialist television within a European and global media history Historians and media cultural and literary scholars take interdisciplinary perspectives to focus on structures actors flow contents or the reception of cross border television Their contributions cover Albania the CSSR the GDR Russia and the Soviet Union Serbia Slovenia and Yugoslavia thus complementing Western dominated perspectives on Cold War mass media with a specific focus on the spaces and actors of East European communication Last but not least the volume takes a long term perspective crossing the fall of the Iron Curtain as many trends of the post socialist period are linked to or pick up socialist traditions

Landscape Architecture and Digital Technologies Jillian Walliss, Heike Rahmann, 2016-02-12 Landscape Architecture and Digital Technologies explores how digital technologies are reshaping design and making in landscape architecture While the potentials of digital technologies are well documented within landscape planning and visualisation their application within design practice is far less understood This book highlights the role of the digital model in encouraging a new design logic that moves from the privileging of the visual to a focus on processes of formation bridging the interface of the conceptual and material the virtual and the physical Drawing on interviews and projects from a range of international designers including Sn hetta Arup Gustafson Porter ASPECT Studios Grant Associates Catherine Mosbach Philippe Rahm PARKKIM LAAC and PEG office of landscape architecture among others the authors explore the influence of parametric modelling scripting real time data simulation prototyping fabrication and Building Information Modelling on the design and construction of contemporary landscapes This engagement with practice is expanded through critical reflection from academics involved in landscape architecture programs around the world that are reshaping their research and pedagogy to reflect an expanded digital realm Crossing critical theory technology and contemporary design the book constructs a picture of an emerging twenty first century practice of landscape architecture practice premised on complexity and performance It also highlights the disciplinary demands and challenges in engaging with a rapidly evolving digital context within practice and education The book is of immense value to professionals and researchers and is a key publication for digital landscape courses at all levels
