In the past thirty five years counterterrorist units have been deployed to deal with airplane ship train and bus hijackings. They have rescued hostages in various types of buildings and have dealt with barricaded bank robbers prison rioters and assorted dangerous criminals. Following the September 11th attack on the World Trade Centre the mission of many anti terrorist units has expanded. Some units now track terrorists to their lairs in other countries and strike them there. Despite the significant and growing role of these units little is known about the way they operate.
