Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world's biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Accounting Gr10 T/g , Resources in Education ,1994

African Books in Print ,1993 The Semiotics of New Spaces Charlyn Dyers,2018-11-28 In South Africa the township or sub economic state housing development has achieved a very significant position as a site for sociolinguistic research The Semiotics of New Spaces Language and Literacy Practices in one South African Township looks at the ways in which people are responding through their semiotic practices to the intense socio historical changes taking place in post apartheid South Africa The study is set against the backdrop of Wesbank one of the first racially mixed housing developments in the Western Cape The result is a range of related topics such as how cross cultural and crosslinguistic families influence the language practices of their younger members the impact of translingual friendships on language practices and attitudes the ways in which older people use their existing literacies to negotiate the multilingual realities of the township and aspects such as identity voice and agency as markers of a developing participatory citizenship Revitalizing Minority Voices Renée DePalma,Diane Brook Napier,Willibroad Dze-Ngwa,2015-10-13 Whose voices are taken into account in language policy and planning and whose have been ignored or more actively silenced This is the central question addressed in this book What are the political and social factors that have helped to create these historical exclusions in terms of endangerment and loss of traditional languages What are the global influences on the local landscape of languages and linguistic rights What are the implications for cultural heritage and identity In analyzing these questions and reporting on research in an array of countries the chapter authors also suggest ways forward toward designing more inclusive policies and practices in educational contexts whether in the context of obligatory schooling or in less formal educational contexts UNESCO estimates that at least 43% of the estimated 6000 languages spoken in the world are endangered Such statistics remind us that the linguistic diversity that characterizes the human condition is a fragile thing and that certain languages need to be cultivated if they are to survive into the 21st century and beyond The chapters in this volume originated as presentations at the XV World Congress of Comparative Education Societies Buenos Aires Argentina 2013 They represent several global regions namely Africa Asia Europe and North America They provide analyses of language policy and politics at the local regional national and transnational levels grass roots linguistic revitalization initiatives and the attitudes of minority and majority speakers toward minoritized languages and cultures and towards intercultural and multilingual education programs div The African Book Publishing Record ,2006 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope ,1977 Relanguaging

Language from a South African Township School Lara-Stephanie Krause-Alzaidi, 2021-12-20 Using data from a long term ethnographic study of English language classrooms in a South African township this book highlights linguistic expertise in a setting where it is not usually expected or sought Rather than being peripheral and unskilled South African township teachers and learners emerge as skilled re languagers central to the workings of South African education and to our understanding of how language classrooms work This book foregrounds the heterogeneity flexibility and creativity of day to day language practices that African urban spaces are known for and conceptualises language teaching not as a progression from one fixed language to another but as a circular sorting process between linguistic heterogeneity languaging and homogeneity a standard language
