Romanelli,2016 The purpose of this research project was to create a training manual for the front office operations of an independent boutique style hotel in a campus town in the Midwest Researchers met with the hotel's management team to review the current hotel policies and training material. Training manuals serve the important purpose of providing a consistent way to communicate instructions to employees about how to perform essential functions of their jobs. A review of professional hospitality and business articles on training and other resources revealed that experts perceived a strong correlation between training and many other factors in benefiting employee training. This study found employee training offered significant contributions to any organization in enhancing the abilities of their employees. Existing research has shown that hotel managers are reluctant to invest in proper training programs for their employees due to tight budgets and high turnover.

Professional Hotel Management J M S Negi, 2002. This book is an essential text for hospitality management students. It examines the relevance and applications of general management theory and principles to hospitality organizations. Using contemporary material and case studies, the book indicates ways in which performance may be improved through better use of human resources. Rigorous academic theory is related to hospitality practice based on the author's great knowledge of the hospitality industry. The text takes a vocational basis and the illustration of the theory with the real-life examples of hospitality management in action provides a solid and stimulating introduction to the subject.

Marketing for Tourism, Hospitality & Events Simon Hudson, Louise Hudson, 2023-12-04. This cutting-edge and engaging student textbook, now in a second edition, provides essential coverage of marketing principles for Tourism, Hospitality and Events with a strong focus on the increasing global and digital aspects of these industries. The text has been updated to include all the latest industry developments, practice and research, including the lasting impacts of Covid 19 on consumer behaviour and, in turn, the tourism, hospitality and events industries, as well as the accelerated role of digitalization and use of new technologies such as artificial intelligence and the metaverse, both of which are changing how people conceive of travel and experiences whilst blurring the boundaries between what is real and virtual. Popular chapter features such as Lessons from a Marketing Guru, featuring personal insights from real-world practitioners, and Digital Spotlights, which highlight the ways in which technology has transformed tourism, hospitality and events, and Marketing in Action, case studies, continue to help bring the text to life through fun and relevant examples from a wide variety of organizations and regions across the globe. This textbook is essential reading for any university or college course looking at marketing in relation to tourism, hospitality and events. Simon Hudson is a tourism and hospitality professor at the University of South Carolina. Louise Hudson is a freelance travel journalist writing for a host of newspaper travel sections, online tourism sites and her own blog.
