Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization:

Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization Saturnino M. Borras, Jr., Marc Edelman, Cristóbal Kay, 2009-02-23 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions. Studies the activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans, forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families, runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials, and Mexican migrants who, having exited in desperation, return from abroad to transform their communities. Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as V a Campesina. Celebrates a dynamic sector of international civil society and tackles the thorny questions of successes and failures, ethical and political dilemmas, troubled alliances with NGOs, protest repertoires, and representation claims. Analyzes contemporary collective action in all its complexity, acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions, posing challenging questions, and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists.

Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization

Saturnino M. Borras, Jr., Marc Edelman, Cristóbal Kay, 2008-11-10 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions. Here are activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans, forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families, runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials, and Mexican migrants who, having exited in desperation, return from abroad to transform their communities. Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as V a Campesina. Rather than simply celebrating a dynamic sector of international civil society, the authors tackle thorny questions of successes and failures, ethical and political dilemmas, troubled alliances with NGOs, protest repertoires, and representation claims. The essays in Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization analyze contemporary collective action in all its complexity, acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions, posing challenging questions, and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists. Contributors include Suraya Afiff, Xochitl Bada, Brenda Baletti, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Marc Edelman, Jonathan Fox, Harriet Friedmann, Tamara M. Johnson, Cristóbal Kay, Kevin Malseed, Philip McMichael, Amber McNair, Peter Newell, Nancy Lee Peluso, Noer Fauzi Rachman, Ian Scoones, Kathy Le Mons Walker, and Wendy Wolford.

Handbook of Critical Agrarian Studies Akram-Lodhi, A. H., Dietz, Kristina, Engels, Bettina, McKay, Ben M., 2021-12-14 Exploring the emerging and vibrant field of critical agrarian studies, this comprehensive Handbook offers interdisciplinary insights from both leading scholars and activists to understand agrarian life, livelihoods, formations, and processes of change. It highlights the development of the field, which is characterized by theoretical and methodological pluralism and innovation.

The Political Economy of the Agri-Food System in Thailand Prapimphan

Chiengkul,2017-05-08 This book adopts a neo Marxist and Gramscian approach to studying the political economy of the agricultural and food system in Thailand 1990 2014 The author argues that hegemonic forces have many measures to co opt dissent into hegemonic structures and that counter hegemony should be seen as an ongoing process over a long period of time where predominantly counter hegemonic forces constrained by political economic structural conditions may at times retain some hegemonic elements Contrary to what some academic studies suggest the author argues that localist inspired social movements in Thailand are not insular and anti globalisation International Political Economy and the Global South Zaynab El Bernoussi,Adriana María Garriga-López,Giuliano Martiniello,Bashir Saade,2025-06-13 International Political Economy and the Global South provides students from both the Global South and the Global North a textbook that speaks to distinct concepts categories and issues of International Political Economy IPE from a Southern and Northern perspective while identifying how they differ The primary goal is to provide an alternative or complementary reading of IPE derived from the experiences of the periphery The textbook asks how has the Global South responded to the demands of a global economy What is the meaning of sovereignty to those who have experienced colonialism and imperialism How can the Global South claim the international when the Global North sets its norms institutions and practices It opens with a standard introduction offering an intellectual history of key IPE concepts including state firm capital power labor globalization and finance Each subsequent chapter follows a similar structure exploration of the problem discussion of what may be missing from dominant understandings of the problem and or how orthodox IPE may tell us something different about the problem compared to what is experienced in the Global South and identification of alternative frameworks and perspectives Aiming to de Westernize and decentralize the production of knowledge the textbook introduces students to the discipline and phenomenon of IPE with a genuinely global perspective The Politics of Biofuels, Land and Agrarian Change Saturnino Borrás Jr.,Philip McMichael,Ian Scoones,2013-09-13 This book addresses key questions on biofuels within agrarian political economy political sociology and political ecology Contributions are based on fresh empirical materials from different parts of the world The book starts with four key questions in agrarian political economy Who owns what Who does what Who gets what And what do they do with the surplus wealth It also addresses the emergent social and political relations in the biofuel complex and given the impacts on natural resources and sustainability engages with questions about people environment interactions At the same time the book is concerned with the politics of representation that is what are the discursive frames through which biofuels are promoted and or opposed The book analyses the institutional structures and cultures of energy consumption on which a biofuels complex depends and the alternative political and ecological visions emerging that call the biofuels complex into question Across sixteen chapters presenting material from five regions across the North South divide and focusing on fourteen countries including Brazil Indonesia India USA and Germany these topics are addressed within the following themes global re configurations agro ecological visions conflicts resistances and diverse outcomes state capital and society relations

mobilising opposition creating alternatives and change and continuity This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Peasants Negotiating a Global Policy Space Ingeborg Gaarde, 2017-02-24 With members in more than 80 countries of the world the global peasant movement La V a Campesina has planted itself firmly on the international scene With a focus on agency the capacity to act this book explores the opportunities and challenges for mobilised peasants to engage directly in the global policy processes within the Committee on World Food Security

Handbook of Land and Water Grabs in Africa John Anthony Allan, 2013 Four other themes will be addressed politics economics the environment and the history of land investments in sub Saharan Africa A Companion to Moral Anthropology Didier Fassin, 2015-01-20 A Companion to Moral Anthropology is the first collective consideration of the anthropological dimensions of morals morality and ethics Original essays by international experts explore the various currents approaches and issues in this important new discipline examining topics such as the ethnography of moralities the study of moral subjectivities and the exploration of moral economies Investigates the central legacies of moral anthropology the formation of moral facts and values the context of local moralities and the frontiers between moralities politics humanitarianism Features contributions from pioneers in the field of moral anthropology as well as international experts in related fields such as moral philosophy moral psychology evolutionary biology and neuroethics Human Rights and the Food Sovereignty Movement Priscilla Claeys, 2015-01-09 Our global food system is undergoing rapid change Since the global food crisis of 2007 2008 a range of new issues have come to public attention such as land grabbing food prices volatility agrofuels and climate change Peasant social movements are trying to respond to these challenges by organizing from the local to the global to demand food sovereignty As the transnational agrarian movement La Via Campesina celebrates its 20th anniversary this book takes stock of the movement's achievements and reflects on challenges for the future It provides an in depth analysis of the movement's vision and strategies and shows how it has contributed not only to the emergence of an alternative development paradigm but also of an alternative conception of human rights The book assesses efforts to achieve the international recognition of new human rights for peasants at the international level namely the right to food sovereignty and peasants rights It explores why La Via Campesina was successful in mobilizing a human rights discourse in its struggle against neoliberalism and also the limitations and potential pitfalls of using the human rights framework The book shows that to inject subversive potential in their rights based claims rural social activists developed an alternative conception of rights that is more plural less statist less individualistic and more multi cultural than dominant conceptions of human rights Further they deployed a combination of institutional from above and extrainstitutional from below strategies to demand new rights and reinforce grassroots mobilization through rights
