Treating Sex Offenders An Evidence Based Manual:

Treating Sex Offenders Sarah Brown, 2013-07-04 This book aims to provide an introduction and overview of sex offender treatment programmes designed for students and practitioners coming to this field. It seeks to describe the development, theoretical underpinnings, treatment goals and operation of cognitive behavioural and other programmes to an audience unfamiliar with this form of rehabilitation. In addition, it aims to examine the effectiveness of these programmes and the difficulties associated with assessing this, the public response to treatment and also the effects on staff responsible for implementing them. The book is concerned particularly to assess the operation of sex offender treatment programmes in the UK context, considering also the issues associated with implementing programmes developed in other contexts, especially the USA and Canada. It will be of interest to practitioners, particularly those who are beginning work on sex offender treatment programmes or others such as health workers, social workers, probation officers who come into contact with these programmes indirectly.

Treating Sex Offenders Jill D. Stinson, Judith V. Becker, 2012-09-05 This structured yet flexible manual presents an innovative group treatment approach that targets deficits in self-regulation, a central problem for sex offenders. Safe Offender Strategies (SOS) comprises 10 evidence-based modules that teach participants the skills to desist from problem behaviors, manage their emotions and impulses, and break unhealthy relationship patterns. Motivational enhancement and validation techniques are woven throughout this collaborative treatment. SOS can be used with a range of clients, including high risk offenders and those with mental illness or intellectual disabilities, in institutional or outpatient settings. Fifteen reproducible forms and worksheets can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size.

The Rehabilitation of Sexual Offenders Jackie Craissati, 2018-09-26 Sexual offenders arguably the most hated and feared of all offenders commit their crimes in our communities and are then hidden from public view as they serve long prison sentences. However, despite the public's understandable anxiety, our criminal justice systems hold to the premise that almost all offenders have the right to hope for rehabilitation, even redemption. Therefore, the majority of sexual offenders return to live in our communities, closely monitored by criminal justice agencies and subject to rigorous controls. This book provides an authoritative guide to working with sexual offenders, with a focus on managing those who are reintegrating into the community. It includes those with the most striking histories of trauma and psychological difficulty and those who have previously failed in their attempts at resettlement. It covers helpful theoretical ideas such as attachment theory and models of desistance, as well as the latest evidence base for good quality risk assessment. The book supports practitioners on the front line of this work by providing them with evidence-based guidance. It presents a multitude of case examples and practice tips that can support effective decision making and achieve safe outcomes, as well as help such offenders build worthwhile community lives.

Sexual Offending Theresa A. Gannon, Tony Ward, 2017-02-06 Sexual Offending presents the latest theory and research relating to the social cognition, emotion, and motivational goals of individuals who have committed sexual offences. Explores how individuals who have committed sexual offences perceive the world and themselves and how understanding this can inform their rehabilitation. Provides a broad-based view of cognition and explores the complex relationship between cognition, emotion, and associated constructs such as motivational goals. Integrates recent work on female sexual offenders alongside the literature on their male counterparts, providing researchers and practitioners with a single resource. A valuable handbook for researchers, practitioners, and students concerned with understanding and rehabilitating individuals who have committed sexual offences.
