How Writing Faculty Write Christine E. Tulley, 2018-04-09 In How Writing Faculty Write Christine Tulley examines the composing processes of fifteen faculty leaders in the field of rhetoric and writing revealing through in depth interviews how each scholar develops ideas conducts research drafts and revises a manuscript and pursues publication The book shows how productive writing faculty draw on their disciplinary knowledge to adopt attitudes and strategies that not only increase their chances of successful publication but also cultivate writing habits that sustain them over the course of their academic careers The diverse interviews present opportunities for students and teachers to extrapolate from the personal experience of established scholars to their own writing and professional lives Tulley illuminates a long unstudied corner of the discipline the writing habits of theorists researchers and teachers of writing Her interviewees speak candidly about overcoming difficulties in their writing processes on a daily basis using strategies for getting started and restarted avoiding writer s block finding and using small moments of time and connecting their writing processes to their teaching How Writing Faculty Write will be of significant interest to students and scholars across the spectrum graduate students entering the discipline new faculty and novice scholars thinking about their writing lives mid level and senior faculty curious about how scholars research and write historians of rhetoric and composition and metadisciplinary scholars

Academic Writing 2nd Edition: Student Book Intro Alice Savage,Masoud Shafiei,2020-02-07 Effective Academic Writing teaches the complete academic writing process from sentence level to researched essay Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century Chantel Lavoie,2023-11-10 Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century explores how boyhood was constructed in different creative spaces that reflected the lived experience of young boys through the long eighteenth century not simply in children s literature but in novels poetry medical advice criminal broadsides and automaton exhibitions The chapters encompass such rituals as breeching learning to read and write and going to school They also consider the lives of boys such as chimney sweeps and convicted criminals whose bodily labor was considered their only value and who often did not live beyond boyhood Defined by a variety of tasks expectations and objectifications boys real imagined and sometimes both were subject to the control of their elders and were used as tools in the cause of civil society commerce and empire This book argues that boys in the long eighteenth century constituted a particular kind of currency both valuable and expendable valuable because of gender expendable because of youth Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change Justin Everett, Russell Mayo, 2024-11-25 Catastrophic storms searing heat waves crumbling waterfronts warming oceans air fouling forest fires and mass extinction have become facts of life Under these conditions it is difficult to imagine that the global industrial civilization will continue in its present form This requires us to reconsider the subject of ecocomposition from a new perspective What does it mean to teach college writing in the face of this sobering reality The introduction reviews the history of ecocomposition and reframes it in light of the apocalyptic turn in climate discourse over the last quarter century as well as the role that ecocomposition theory can play in framing these discussions Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change is organized into four sections The first section considers the environmental narrative from the viewpoint of climate justice while the second reframes pedagogies of place in light of the climate catastrophe The third section examines the intersections of writing studies and the natural sciences while the fourth section entertains the personal and emotional dimensions of teaching ecocomposition within the framework of catastrophic climate change If we have been successful these chapters provide a starting place for having sobering discussions in our classrooms and considering what ecocomposition means in this unsettling age Catalogue of the London Library London Library, 1913 Beginning Reading and Writing Dorothy S.
