Twins Lawrence Wright, 1999-02-10 A New York Times Notable Book for 1998 Critical acclaim for Lawrence Wright's A Rhone Poulenc Science Prize Finalist This is a book about far more than twins it is about what twins can tell us about ourselves The New York Times With plenty of amazing stories about the similarities and differences of twins Wright respectfully shows too how their special circumstance in life challenges our notions of individuality A truly fascinating but sometimes spooky Mengele's experiments with twins at Auschwitz figure among Wright's examples study American Library Association Like so much of Wright's work this book is a pleasure to read Because he writes so well without pushing a particular point of view he soon has you pondering questions you have tended to comfortably ignore Austin American Statesman Informative and entertaining a provocative subject well considered by a talented journalist Kirkus Reviews

Steeped in Blood Frances J. Latchford, 2019-08-15 What personal truths reside in biological ties that are absent in adoptive ties And why do we think adoptive and biological ties are essentially different when it comes to understanding who we are At a time when interest in DNA and ancestry is exploding Frances Latchford questions the idea that knowing one's bio genealogy is integral to personal identity or a sense of family and belonging Upending our established values and beliefs about what makes a family Steeped in Blood examines the social and political devaluation of adoptive ties It takes readers on an intellectual journey through accepted wisdom about adoption twins kinship and incest and challenges our naturalistic and individualistic assumptions about identity and the biological ties that bind us sometimes violently to our families Latchford exposes how our desire for bio genealogical knowledge understood as it is by family and adoption experts pathologizes adoptees by posing the biological tie as a necessary condition for normal identity formation Rejecting the idea that a love of the self same is fundamental to family bonds her book is a reaction to the wounds families suffer whenever they dare to revel in their difference A rejoinder to rhetoric that defines adoptees adoptive kin and their family intimacies as inferior and inauthentic Steeped in Blood's view through the lens of critical adoption studies decentres our cultural obsession with the biological family imaginary and makes real the possibility of being family in the absence of blood

Lee Davis,2015-01-01 Twins Talk is an ethnographic study of identical twins in the United States a study unique in that it considers what twins have to say about themselves instead of what researchers have written about them It presents in the first person the grounded and practical experiences of twins as they engage both individually and together the who am I and who are we questions of life Here the twins themselves are the stars Dona Lee Davis conducted conversational interviews with twenty two sets of identical twins attending the Twins Days Festival in Twinsburg Ohio the largest such gathering in the world Lively and often opinionated each twin comes through as a whole person who at the same time maintains a special bond that the vast majority of people will never experience The study provides a distinctive and enlightening insider's challenge to the nature nurture debates that dominate contemporary research on twins The author herself an identical twin draws on aspects of her own life to inform her analysis of the data throughout the text Each chapter addresses a different theme from multiple viewpoints including those of popular science writers scientific researchers and singletons as well as those of the twins themselves Twin Flames and How They Change your World Maura Lawler,2024-10-10 Twin

Flames and How They Change Your World by Maura Lawler is about the coming home to oneself as you unravel a remembrance of who you are It is also about the awakening experience once you are awakened by your Twin Flame and the roller coaster of emotions that can feel overwhelming at times as you learn to balance the irrational and logic parts of your mind in order for the heart to catch up as love always resides in the heart The Twin Flame Connection is a soul heart awakening and one that can never be lost on all dimensions despite what lessons we are meant to learn in the physical we are always connected as one through the heart and soul with our Twin Flame Tales of the Peacemaker Ashley

Hall,2019-04-26 These are a 21 interactive subset of the Tales of the Peacemaker series As one might expect they all whitens some events Only the events important to them do they record in their stories If you read all 21 stories you will see parts that you have read in others but also there are some different things woven into the stories They tell it as it occurred to them Angela Atom is the one to create new objects Identical Twins Mviki Ncube,2018-06-12 In Identical Twins The Social

Construction and Performance of Identity in Culture and Society Ncube conceptualises twin identity as a multi layered dynamic that changes through performance and explores twin identity through a social constructionist approach Until now mainstream twin studies have mostly sought to explain social phenomena about twins from inside the person providing their explanations in terms of internal entities such as personality structures with an obvious underlying essentialist assumption By examining the theories of Michel Foucault and Judith Butler Ncube shows that the identity of twins is managed in both an academic and cultural context and in relation to specific audiences Relocating the explanations that we gather in social research including in qualitative research in psychology the book focuses its enquiry on the social practices and interactions that people engage in with each other not delving inside the person Using real world twin accounts the book maps out the social construction of twin identity and allows for the twins own voices to be examined in relation to twin experiences Also addressing aspects of being misunderstood as well as the idea of misunderstanding oneself this is fascinating reading for students and researchers in critical and cultural psychology and anyone interested in twin studies Time of the Twins
