Two Lives One Century One Cuban Family:

The Cuban Family Rosemarie Skaine, 2015-01-24 This work explores how relationships of blood marriage sex and residence work in each type of Cuban family particularly as it is affected by Cuba's struggle to transform its economy It also examines historical perspectives on the contemporary Cuban family ethnicity and race marriage the extended family family rights the emigrating family United States citizenship issues religion and the Cuban American family Tables list such details as population numbers age life expectancy growth birth and death rates immigration and mortality rates HIV rates and literacy The book also includes narratives of childhood memories from pre revolutionary Cuba to the late 20th century providing fresh insights into the cultural value attached to the family Handbook on Cuban History, Literature, and the Arts

Mauricio A. Font, Araceli Tinajero, 2016-03-02 First Published in 2016 If scholarship on Cuban studies after the 1959 revolution focused on the historical and cultural aspects of the construction of a socialist order the post 1989 crisis of socialism in Central and Eastern Europe raised questions about the island's state as a socialist model The scholarly gaze gradually began to focus on possibilities for alternative transformations at various levels of social life rather than on the deepening of traditional twentieth century state socialism This volume explores the newly emergent themes and debates about Cuban society and history Black Freedom and Education in Nineteenth-Century Cuba

Raquel Alicia Otheguy, 2025-01-14 In this book Raquel Otheguy argues that Afro descended teachers and activists were central to the development of a national education system in Cuba and influenced the trajectory of public school systems in the broader Americas

Alicia Maldonado Ardain Isma, 2004-01-27 Alicia Maldonado is the tumultuous and tormented story of a beautiful aristocratic and universally enchanting white woman born in Cuba in 1943 to a well to do landowning family She arrives in Haiti with her parents after they flee Cuba following the Batista regime's political turmoil The family settles in Les Cayes on the exotic Caribbean coast where the young lady blossoms within a tropical paradise She grows up to marry Richard Laveaux the son of a wealthy mulatto family despite her mother's protests Following the sudden death of her alcoholic husband the young woman her mother and her two children move to Port au Prince the capital of Haiti where she meets and marries Georges Duplan a young officer of the Haitian army But after discovering her husband cheating on her with the vibrant and exciting Rosita she becomes severely depressed What is her life about why do such things always spoil her happiness Unable to cope with her problems Alicia leaves Haiti and vanishes without a trace For twelve long years no one knows her exact whereabouts until one day in 1984 on a rainy Tuesday morning in a crowded Miami Laundromat

Two Lives in Uncertain Times Wilma Iggers, Georg Iggers, 2006-10 Published in Association with the German Historical Institute Washington D C Wilma and Georg Iggers came from different backgrounds Wilma from a Jewish farming family from the German speaking border area of Czechoslovakia Georg from a Jewish business family from Hamburg They both escaped with their parents from Nazi persecution to North America where they met as students As a newly married couple they went to the American South where they taught in two historic Black colleges and were involved in the civil rights movement In 1961 they began going to West Germany regularly not only to do research but also to further reconciliation between Jews and Germans while at the same time in their scholarly work contributing to a critical confrontation with the German past After overcoming first apprehensions they soon felt G ttingen to be their second home while maintaining their close involvements in America After 1966 they frequently visited East Germany and Czechslovakia in an attempt to build bridges in the midst of the Cold War The book relates their very different experiences of childhood and adolescence and then their lives together over almost six decades during which they endeavored to combine their roles as parents and scholars with their social and political engagements In many ways this is not merely a dual biography but a history of changing conditions in America and Central Europe during turbulent times The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Family Studies, 4 Volume Set Constance L. They Must Be Represented Paula Rabinowitz, 1994-12-17

They Must Be Represented examines documentary in print photography television and film from the 1930s through the 1980s using the lens of recent feminist film theory as well as scholarship on race class and gender emerging from the new interdisciplinary approach of American cultural studies

Paula Rabinowitz discusses the ways in which these four media shaped truth claims and political agency over the decades in the 1930s about poverty labor and popular culture during the depression in the 1960s about the Vietnam War racism work and counterculture and in the 1980s about feminist and gay critiques of gender history narrative and cinema

A great deal of documentary expression has been influenced by developments in cultural anthropology as committed artists brought their cameras and typewriters into the field not only to report but also to change the world

Yet recently the projects of both anthropology and documentary have come under scrutiny

Rabinowitz argues that the gendering of vision that occurs when narratives confirm to conventional genres profoundly affects the relation of documentarian to subject

She goes on to define this gendering of vision in documentary as an ethnographic process

Ultimately this polemical study challenges the construction of the spectator in psychoanalytic film theory and articulates a new model for theorizing power relations in culture and history
