Islamic Ethics: The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Contemporary Human Rights Irfaan Jaffer,2021-09-07

Traditional Islamic Ethics The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam s 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam s pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book s intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular

Treasures of Buddhism Frithjof Schuon,2018-09-01 In his classic work on the subject perennialist author Frithjof Schuon explores the vast and varied landscape that is Buddhism Every reader interested in Buddhism from whatever angle will here find much that speaks to his or her condition Schuon presents Buddhism not as an historical artifact of the past but as a living spiritual force In describing the essentials of Buddhism he frequently makes use of comparisons with other traditions including Western religious thought The rich and diverse world of Buddhist art from its statuary to the tea ceremony is a subject treated with particular importance A valuable section on Shinto the indigenous Japanese tradition of the way of the gods concludes the book This revised edition containing over 75 pages of new material features a fully revised translation from the French original as well as previously unpublished selections from Schuon s letters and other private writings Also included is an editor s preface editor s notes a glossary of foreign terms and phrases an index and biographical notes

Christianity/Islam Frithjof Schuon,2008-03-26 Schuon s articles on the relationship between Christianity and Islam have profound implications in the field of inter religious dialogue Several thought provoking chapters shed light from an inward dimension upon the apparent outward contradictions between these two religions notably in the field of moral divergences This new edition is a fully revised translation of the original French edition and contains an extensive new Appendix with previously unpublished selections from his letters and other private writings
