Using Research to Lead School Improvement Scott C. Bauer, S. David Brazer, 2012 Key Features Action Research in Education Sara Efrat Efron, Ruth Ravid, 2019-12-11 Introduction to action research Choosing and learning about your research topic Approaches to action research Developing a plan of action Data collection tools Using assessment data in action research Data analysis and interpretation Writing implementing and sharing the research findings The SAGE Handbook of School Organization Michael Connolly, David H. Eddy-Spicer, Chris James, Sharon D. Kruse, 2018-12-10 The SAGE Handbook of School Organization provides a substantial review of the history current status and future prospects of the field of school organization Bringing together chapters exploring key issues important debates and points of tension the Handbook highlights school and system organisational structure processes and dynamics coupled with insights into important theoretical foundations from diverse perspectives This volume is designed to provide a much needed critically informed and coherent account of the field against a backdrop of increasing complexity in which schooling as an institution and schools as organisations operate An Introduction to Educational Research Chad R. Lochmiller, Jessica N. Lester, 2015-12-11 Expand your understanding of educational research with this practice first introduction Written specifically for education practitioners An Introduction to Educational Research Connecting Methods to Practice approaches research methods from a practice first perspective that aligns research with professional experiences and identifies the tools and resources readers can use when conducting their own research Throughout the book the authors illuminate complex research concepts using problems of practice confronting educators to help readers make meaningful connections with key concepts and research practices The authors present balanced coverage across research methodologies that is linked to practice so readers clearly see research as a tool they can use to improve classrooms schools districts and educational organizations Only in New Orleans Luis Mirón, Brian R. Beabout, Joseph L. Boselovic, 2015-07-22 With 2015 marking the 10th commemoration of Hurricane Katrina education reform in New Orleans continues to garner substantial local national and international attention Advocates and critics alike have continued to cite test scores new school providers and different theories of governance in making multiple arguments for and against how contemporary education policy is shaping public education and its role in the rebuilding of the city Rather than trying to provide a single unified account of education reform in New Orleans the chapters in this volume provide multiple ways of approaching some of the most significant questions around school choice and educational equity that have arisen in the years since Katrina This collection of research articles essays and journalistic accounts of education reform in New Orleans collectively argues that the extreme makeover of the city's public schools toward a new market based model was shaped by many local historically specific conditions In consequence while the city's schools have been both heralded as a model for other cities and derided as a lesson in the limits of market based reform the experience of education reform that has taken place in the city and its impacts on the lives of students families and educators could have happened only in New Orleans Renewed Accountability for Access and Excellence Penny L. Tenuto,2015-10-29 Renewed Accountability for Access and Excellence advances discussion of a conceptualized model for cultivating democratic professional practice in education DPPE and considers its relationship with contemporary teaching and leading praxes A diverse and highly qualified group of scholars and practitioners have contributed chapters relating to innovative programs co constructed partnerships empirical and teaching case studies and examples of practical applications of theory for advancing teaching and leading This single volume a collection of works arranged into a conceptualized model with application for practice is recommended as a resource for research libraries a textbook in programs of teacher and educational leadership preparation and a wellspring of knowledge and ideas for professional growth and innovation for P 12 teachers and school leaders Educating for Purposeful Life S. David Brazer,Michael B Matsuda,2023-10-12 A visionary blueprint for educational reform that envisions school systems as opportunity engines preparing young citizens for future workplace success civic engagement and fulfilling lives Educating for Purposeful Life documents positive change within the Anaheim Union High School District whose overarching mission is to prepare high school graduates who possess a clear sense of purpose and the capacity to achieve their goals Superintendent Michael Matsuda and education consultant David Brazer lay out the district s innovative approaches to organizing leading teaching and learning They demonstrate how education policy organization theory and external partnerships work together within this grades 7 12 district to scaffold student success resulting in greater high school graduation rates and four year college matriculation and persistence rates A rousing account of effective school reform this work illuminates the district s Career Preparedness Systems Framework which integrates affective and cognitive development opportunities trade and professional development programs and community engagement efforts Matsuda and Brazer show how this framework combined with a strengths based approach that recognizes and affirms students individual life experiences helps meet the educational needs of all students including those from traditionally underserved populations Presenting secondary education as a means to support democracy address employability gaps and elevate student voice and purpose this thought provoking work provides ample ideas for how other districts might engage in educating for purposeful life Educational Leadership, Organizational Learning, and the Ideas of Karl Weick Bob Johnson Jr.,Sharon D.
