Intercultural and Interfaith Dialogues for Global Peacebuilding and Stability Peleg, Samuel, 2019-05-31 Communication is vital to the prosperity and survival of the community with the quality of communication amongst its members directly improving or worsening the value of the community. However with the increase in immigration and relocation of refugees the need to accommodate diverse cultural groups becomes imperative for the viability and survivability of a community while posing challenges to communication. Intercultural and interfaith dialogue can be used constructively to cultivate manage and sustain diversity and wellbeing in particularly deeply divided communities. Intercultural and Interfaith Dialogues for Global Peacebuilding and Stability is a critical research publication that explores the importance of conflict resolution strategies among populations that include a varied amalgamation of cultural and religious backgrounds. With the increasing emphasis on intercultural understanding promoted by governments civil societies and international mediators this book offers relevant remedies for major afflictions in the world today such as exclusion marginalization xenophobia and racism. It is ideal for government officials policymakers activists diplomats lawyers international trade and commerce agencies religious institutions academicians researchers and students working in a variety of disciplines including political science international relations law communication sociology and cultural studies
