Critical Content Analysis of Visual Images in Books for Young People Holly Johnson, Janelle Mathis, Kathy Short, 2019-05-31 Extending the discussion of critical content analysis to the visual realm of picturebooks and graphic novels this book provides a clear research methodology for understanding and analyzing visual imagery Offering strategies for reading illustrations in global and multicultural literature chapter authors explore and bring together critical theory and social semiotics while demonstrating how visual analysis can be used to uncover and analyze power ideologies inequity and resistance in picturebooks and graphic novels This volume covers a diverse range of texts and types of books and offers tools and procedures for interpreting visual images to enhance the understandings of researchers teachers and students as they engage with the visual culture that fills our world These methods are significant not only to becoming a critical reader of literature but to also becoming a critical reader of visual images in everyday life Literary Research and British Postmodernism Bridgit McCafferty,Arianne

Hartsell-Gundy,2015-09-02 Literary Research and British Postmodernism is a guide for scholars that aims to connect the complex relationships between print and multimedia technological advancements and the influence of critical theory that converge in postwar British literature This era is unique in that strict boundaries between fiction nonfiction multimedia and print are not useful Postmodern literature is defined by the breaking down of boundaries as a reaction to modernism and requires an innovative multifaceted approach to research In this guide the authors explore these complex relationships and offer strategies for researching this new period of literature This book takes a holistic approach to postmodern literature that recognizes the way in which digital media film critical theory popular music and more traditional print sources are inextricably linked Through this approach the authors present a broad view of postmodernism that includes a wide variety of British authors writing in the last half of the twentieth century The book s definition of postmodern includes any British literature following World War II that engages issues central to postmodern theory including the social construction of gender sexuality and power the subjectivity of truth technology as a social force intertextuality metafiction post colonial narrative and fantasy This guide aims to aid researchers of postwar British literature by defining best practices for scholars conducting research in a period so broadly varied in the way it defines literature Critical Content Analysis of Children's and Young Adult Literature Holly Johnson,Janelle Mathis,Kathy G. Short,2016-06-17 In this book the authors describe their strategies for critically reading global and multicultural literature and the range of procedures they use for critical analyses They also reflect on how these research strategies can inform classrooms and children as readers Critical content analysis offers researchers a methodology for examining representations of power and position in global and multicultural children s and adolescent literature This methodology highlights the critical as locating power in social practices by understanding uncovering and transforming conditions of inequity Importantly it also provides insights into specific global and multicultural books significant within classrooms as well as strategies that teachers can use to engage students in critical literacy Proceedings of the 2024 7th International Conference on Humanities Education and Social Sciences (ICHESS 2024) Feiru Zeng,Asad Khalil,Feng Wu,Jianfei Luo,2024-12-20 This is an open access book ICHES started in 2018 the last five sessions of ICHES have all been successfully published ICHES is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Humanities Education and Social Sciences to a common forum The 7th International Conference on Humanities Education and Social Sciences ICHESS2024 will be held on October 11-13, 2024 in Ningbo, China. This conference serves as a platform for the exchange of innovative ideas, cutting-edge research, and collaborative initiatives that address the pressing issues faced by our communities today. The overarching theme of this year's conference is Bridging Traditions and Innovations, which underscores the importance of harmonizing classical perspectives with modern advancements to foster a holistic understanding of human behaviour, culture, and societal development. By facilitating dialogue and connections among diverse fields such as history, philosophy, sociology, education, and psychology, the conference aims to promote interdisciplinary research and enhance educational practices. Ultimately, the goal is to inspire actionable insights and foster sustainable solutions that contribute to societal well-being and global progress. This year's conference distinguishes itself from previous editions by emphasizing a set of unique and timely research themes designed to address the evolving landscapes of humanities and social sciences. One of the primary themes is Digital Humanities and Society, which explores how digital technologies are transforming historical research, cultural preservation, and educational methodologies. Another significant theme is Social Justice and Equity, focusing on contemporary challenges related to race, gender, class, and access to education, and fostering discussions on policies and practices that aim to create a more just society. Globalization and Cultural Identity is another key theme, examining the effects of global interconnectedness on local cultures and identities, and how these dynamics shape both individual and collective experiences in diverse societies. Additionally, Sustainability and Ethics invites scholars to delve into the ethical dimensions of environmental sustainability, social responsibility, and the role of humanities and social sciences in promoting sustainable development. Furthermore, this year's conference introduces a theme on Interdisciplinary Approaches to Crisis Management, addressing the critical need for humanities and social sciences perspectives in understanding and managing global crises such as pandemics, economic instability, and political upheavals. By focusing on these distinct research themes, the conference aims to not only advance academic discourse but also inspire concrete actions that address the multifaceted challenges of our time.

An Introduction to Literary Studies Mario Klarer, 2013-06-19 In this classic beginner's guide to English literature, Mario Klarer offers a concise and accessible discussion of central issues in the study of literary texts, looking at definitions of key terms such as literature and text, the genres of fiction, poetry, drama, and film, periods and classifications of literature, theoretical approaches to texts, the use of secondary resources, guidelines for writing research essays. The new and expanded edition is fully updated to include a wider range of textual examples from world literature, additional references to contemporary cinema, a section on comparative literature, an extended survey of literary periods and genres, recent changes in MLA guidelines, information on state-of-the-art citation management software, the use and abuse of online resources. The book also features suggestions for further reading as well as an extensive glossary of key terms.
