Pissing Figures 1280-2014 Jean-Claude Lebensztejn, 2017-08-22 Jean Claude Lebensztejn's history of the urinating figure in art Pissing Figures 1280 2014 is at once a scholarly inquiry into an important visual motif and a ribald statement on transgression and limits in works of art in general Lebensztejn is one of France's best kept secrets A world class art historian who has lectured and taught at major universities in the United States his work has remained almost entirely in French his American audience limited to a small but dedicated group of cognoscenti First introducing the Manneken Pis the iconic little boy whose stream of urine supplies water to this famous fountain and is also the logo for a Belgian beer company the author takes the reader through a semi scatological maze of cultural history The earliest example is a fresco scene located directly above Cimabue's Crucifixion from around 1280 at the Basilica of Saint Francis of Assisi in which Lebensztejn's careful eye locates an angel behind a pillar who looks like he is about to urinate through a hole in his garment He continues to navigate expertly through cultural twists and turns stopping to discuss Pier Paolo Pasolini's 1968 film Teorema for example and Marlene Dumas's 1996 1997 homage to Rembrandt's peeing woman At every moment Lebensztejn's prose is lively his thinking dynamic and his subject matter entertaining In this short and poignant cultural history readers not only find the care for detail that has made Lebensztejn into one of the greatest European art historians but also the rebelliousness that makes him one of the most interesting intellectuals of our time The first widely distributed book of Lebensztejn's in English Pissing Figures 1280 2014 is simultaneously published in France by Editions Macula

France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2019-01-01 Taking on the myth of France's creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art
