

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a cobblestone path. The path is made of irregular, light-colored stones and leads from the foreground towards the background. In the distance, a person wearing a dark coat is walking away from the viewer. The lighting is warm, suggesting a sunny day, and the overall tone is contemplative and forward-looking.

Organix Bob Whitesel, 2011-11-01 Does your leadership style fit new ways of doing church leadership that is organic and elastic and that finds ways to seize God given opportunities Looking back and drawing on the ancient Christian tradition Bob Whitesel describes seven traits for successful leadership which he characterizes by seven symbols O the Greek symbol theta the first letter of the Greek word theos stresses that God is the source of the burden for others and provides the power to help them Rx the medical prescription symbol an emphasis on addressing the spiritual and physical health of leaders G a stylized G for graffiti the edgy colorful and artful collages that help define contemporary organizations A inspired by the recycle symbol the idea of recycling places experiences and people rather than discarding them N emerging networks that connect people more quickly efficiently precisely and continuously I an emphasis on incarnation a going in the flesh to serve others rather than sending surrogates X the Jerusalem cross with a number in each quadrant four types of measurement observed in Jerusalem Acts 2:42-47 which at their core point to Christ's work on the cross Taken together these symbols spell out the word organix and represent a fundamentally new way to think about your church and how you can best lead

Pentecostalism, Secularism, and Post Christendom Bradley Truman Noel, 2015-12-14 If only we were a Christian country again Christians particularly those in the West often lament their loss of influence in modern politics and culture It seems that everywhere one turns Christendom in the West is dealt another blow with Christian reactions ranging from withdrawal and entrenchment to cries of persecution and talks of organized resistance Pentecostalism Secularism and Post Christendom seeks to address these concerns via an examination of Classical North American Pentecostalism as it wrestles with the very real challenges posed by the increasing post-Christian ethos of Western culture In addition to providing a number of concrete steps Pentecostals may take in their efforts to better understand and connect with modern culture this work will argue that counter intuitively the death of Christendom if properly addressed may in fact herald the arrival of the Church's finest hour

A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger Roland Millare, 2022-06-13 A Living Sacrifice focuses on the inherent relationship between eschatology and the liturgy in light of Ratzinger's insistence upon the primacy of logos over ethos. When logos is subordinated to ethos, the human person becomes subjected to a materialist ontology that leads to an ethos that is concerned above all by utility and progress, which affects one's approach to understanding the liturgy and eschatology. How a person celebrates the liturgy becomes subject to the individual whim of one person or a group of people. Eschatology is reduced to addressing the temporal needs of a society guided by a narrow conception of hope or political theology. If the human person wants to understand his authentic sacramental logos, then he must first turn to Christ, the incarnate Logos, who reveals to him that he is created for a loving relationship with God and others. The primacy of logos is the central hermeneutical key to understanding the unique vision of Ratzinger's Christocentric liturgical theology and eschatology. This is coupled with a study of Ratzinger's spiritual Christology with a focus on how it influences his theology of liturgy and eschatology through the notions of participation and communion in Christ's sacrificial love. Finally, A Living Sacrifice examines Ratzinger's theology of hope, charity, and beauty as well as his understanding of active participation in relationship to the eschatological and cosmic characteristics of the sacred liturgy.
