Understanding European Integration R. Pavananthi Vembulu, 2003 In The Background Of New Questions Of Identity Culture And Community Emerged After Maastricht Treaty This Book Explores The European Integration Process Since It Throws Immanent Challenge To The Existing Theoretical Paradigms Such As Nationalism And Globalization Drawing Influence From This Intellectual Climate This Book Tries To Understand The Integration Process Within The Cultural History Of Europe The Study Structured Itself Along Three Axes First It Circled Down On The Problematic Over Defining What Europe Means Here The Efforts Were On To Highlight The Constant Flux And Contingent Nature Of The Definition Of Europe Second How This Contingent Nature Of Europe Has Compelled The European Union To No Longer Skirt Away The Question Of Identity If It Is To Consolidate The Process And Expand Its Boundary Towards East By Focusing Upon The Cultural Policy Of The Union The Study Brought Forth The Various Efforts Of The Union Particularly The European Commission To Transform The Loyalties And Identities Of People From The National Crucible To A Broader European Spectrum Thirdly The Study Critically Evaluates These Policy Initiatives And Highlights How They Are Structured Around The Nineteenth Century Colonial Discourse Of Europe

A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Catherine Guisan, 2013-03-01 This book provides a theoretical and historical examination of the speech and deeds of European founders Using a fresh and innovative approach this monograph connects political theory with concrete political practices based on empirical evidence and theorizes the internal process of European reconciliations as it has been experienced by those involved The book draws upon over 100 interviews memoirs autobiographies and essays of elite and grassroot actors across the history of the European Union from the founding of the European Coal and Steel Community in 1950 2 to the 2010 financial crisis It introduces the reader to major contemporary Western political thinkers Hannah Arendt J rgen Habermas Charles Taylor and Paul Ricoeur and examines how their theories develop the interpretation of political phenomena such as European integration As one of the first studies of EU memories this approach opens a unique window of analysis to view the development of the European community and makes a fascinating contribution to our understanding of the political tradition born of 60 years of European integration A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Memory and Policies will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European politics contemporary democratic theory and EU studies

European Union Economic Law and Culture Evangelia Psychogiopoulou, Sarah Schoenmaekers, 2024-05-02 This topical book provides fresh insight into the ways culture interconnects with and is treated by EU economic law and policy Contributing authors pose key questions pertaining to the nature scope and extent of the competence of the EU and its member states in the field of culture

Constructing the EU's Political Identity Sabine Saurugger, Mark Thatcher, 2022-10-23 This book examines the construction of the EU s political identity or identities variations in its strength and the nature of its content Drawing on studies both on European nation state formation and on the EU s identity the chapters take a top down approach and analyse how EU institutions in different major policy domains have themselves sought to create political identity through policy making The authors define the construction of EU political identity and set out empirically applicable indicators to assess political identity in policy making They analyse the construction of identity through a process oriented approach that explicitly includes contestation and the existence of rival political identities Comparing across policy domains the contributions suggest that the ability of EU institutions to construct an EU political identity has been limited not only by existing national identities but also by the coexistence of rival EU political identities within policy domains Hence it has been difficult for EU institutions to establish a strong identity with identity being strongest where there are clear external alternatives and limited rival identities within the EU Economic and Political Weekly ,2005-09

Building Europe Cris Shore,2000 In this revealing study Cris Shore scrutinises the process of European integration using the techniques of anthropology and drawing on thought from across the social sciences The Cultural Politics of Europe Kiran Klaus Patel,2013-06-07 Culture is one of the most complex and contested fields of European integration This book analyzes EU cultural politics since their emergence in the 1980s with a particular focus on the European Capital of Culture program the flagship of EU cultural policy It discusses both the central as well as local levels and contextualizes EU policies with programmes of other European organisations such as the Council of Europe By asking what Europe actually means for European cultural policy the book goes beyond the confines of official organizations and the political sphere to discuss the contribution impact and appropriation among a more diverse group of actors and participants such as transnational experts local bureaucrats cultural managers urban dwellers and the visitors Its principal aim is to debunk the myth of Brussels as the centre of cultural Europeanization Instead it argues that European cultural policy has to be seen as a relational multi directional movement involving a wide variety of stakeholders and leading to conflicts and collaborations at various levels This book combines the perspectives of political scientists sociologists anthropologists and historians at the intersection between EU urban and cultural studies and changes our understanding of Europeanization by opening up new empirical and conceptual avenues Challenging the dominant interpretation of European cultural policies The Cultural Politics of Europe will be of interest to students and scholars of European studies political scientists sociologists anthropologists geographers historians and cultural studies The politics of feeling in Brexit Britain Jonathan

Moss,Emily Robinson,Jake Watts,2024-01-16 During Brexit political questions were continually framed in emotional terms The referendum was presented as a conflict between reason and resentment fear and hope heads and hearts The Leave vote was interpreted as the triumph of passion over rationality and its aftermath triggered concerns about the divisive impact of feelings on political culture This book examines how these stories about feelings shaped public experiences and determined political possibilities The politics of feeling uses first hand accounts to explore how ordinary people understand their own feelings about the referendum and how they reacted to the feelings of others It shows how they drew on public narratives while also rejecting and reworking them The authors highlight a dangerous contradiction whereby feelings were simultaneously understood as dangerous and illegitimate and as an authentic reflection of our inner selves This had its own political consequences Building Bridges Between Academia, Politics, and Media Ludger Kühnhardt, 2025-04-29 Ludger Kühnhardt a globally active political scientist consultant and publicist provides vivid and personal insights into the people and sources that shaped him the thought paths he has followed and the impulses his work in research and teaching has triggered over decades A biographical workshop report of high authenticity bringing together what often appears unconnected in the midst of professional everyday life Insights that were ahead of their time are repeatedly illuminated from different perspectives and findings that have remained timelessly relevant are recalled A vividly written work biography about the inner driving forces and external contexts of a cosmopolitan public intellectual as an enlightening and advisory catalyst in the interplay of science politics and journalism The book reflects German European and global contemporary history from the mid 20th century to the third decade of the 21st century in a scholarly work and its classification as a testimony to political culture Post-identity? Richard McMahon, 2012 Politics and Identity Robert Szwed, 2007 Which Degree Guide, 2001 Culture and Identity in Europe Michael J. Wintle, 1996 This text asks the question what do people think Europe is Furthermore what relationship do those ideas of Europe bear to the reality of the situation at any given moment It goes on to question the connection between cultural perceptions and the historical reality of Europe ECSA Review, 1997 CSA Political Science & Government, 2004 Which Degree in Britain, 1999 A comprehensive guide to full time degree courses institutions and towns in Britain Contemporary European History, 2003 Post-identity? Richard McMahon, 2013-06-26 Collective identity the emotionally powerful sense of belonging to a group is a crucial source of popular legitimacy for nations However efforts since the 1990s to politically support European integration by using identity mechanisms borrowed from nationalism have had very limited success European integration may require new post national approaches to the relationship between culture and politics This controversial and timely volume poses the logical question if identity doesn't effectively connect culture with European integration politics what does The book brings together leading scholars from several of the disciplines that have developed concepts of culture and methods of cultural research These expert interdisciplinary contributors apply a startling diversity of approaches to culture linking it to facets of integration as varied as external policy the democratic deficit economic dynamism and the geography of integration This book examines commonalities and connections within the European space as well as representations of these in identity discourses It will be useful for students and scholars of sociology geography anthropology social psychology political science and the history of European integration Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
