Unifying Educational Systems Leadership And Policy Perspectives:

Unifying Educational Systems Leonard C. Burrello, Wayne Sailor, Jeannie Kleinhammer-Tramill, 2013 Unifying Educational Systems encourages leaders to move beyond the traditional forms and rituals of leadership for special education that are caught within traditional definitions of a continuum of services Grounded in public policy debates research on teaching and learning and an emerging consensus throughout the leadership community that calls into question our current practices chapters in this volume provide a discussion of the purpose principles and paradoxes extant in the implementation of current special education policy Chapter authors discuss how students are currently served the feasibility of re conceptualizing special education leadership in the current policy context and the challenges for the future Ultimately Unifying Educational Systems calls for a new policy framework to integrate special education within the larger instructional support system in schools in order to support a social justice and inclusive practices agenda IJER Vol 27-N1 International Journal of Educational Reform, Charles J. Russo, Ed.D., J.D., Panzer Chair in Education, University of Dayton, 2018-02-09 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research Handbook of Research-Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability Karrie A. Shogren, 2016-10-14 The Handbook of Research Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability provides an integrated transdisciplinary overview of research based practices for teaching students with intellectual disability This comprehensive volume emphasizes education across life stages from early intervention in schools through the transition to adulthood and highlights major educational and support needs of children and youth with intellectual disability The implications of history recent research and existing information are positioned to systematically advance new practices and explore promising possibilities in the field Driven by the collaboration of accomplished nationally recognized professionals of varied approaches and philosophies the book emphasizes practices that have been shown to be effective through multiple methodologies so as to help readers select interventions based on the evidence of their effectiveness Radical Equality in Education Joanne Larson, 2014-02-03 Tinkering with the current educational system from within has not provided a just and equitable education for all children In this book acclaimed education theorist Joanne Larson poses basic questions about the nature and purpose of schooling Proposing that what is needed is a new purpose that is more consistent with contemporary knowledge production processes one that moves beyond the either or binary of preparing workers citizens in a competitive global economy or a democracy

Larson argues that the only real solution is to start over in U S education the purpose of schooling should be to facilitate human learning meaning making and knowledge production toward just and equitable education for all Radical Equality in Education offers a new ontological starting point and a new theoretical framing that would follow from it articulates theoretical curricular pedagogical and assessment principles that frame a real plan for fundamental change in American education and presents examples of what these ideas might look like in schools and communities

Build Equity, Join Justice Amy McCart,Wade Kelly,Wayne Sailor,2023-04-25 A playbook for designing schools where no student is marginalized Educators all over the country are waking to a collective realization The hope and compassion they have for their students is not enough to counteract the inequitable policies and practices of the school system Students and communities who have been historically disenfranchised along lines of race and disability continue to face predictable barriers to opportunity and independence In Build Equity Join Justice the authors present a new path forward that leads away from deficit focused policies and toward strengths based practices The authors ten equity advancing principles based on the groundbreaking work of the SWIFT Education Center in multiple school districts are designed to address the learning needs and social concerns of all students without requiring them or their advocates to ask permission to be included Complete with practical tools and reflective activities throughout this book empowers educators at every level to transform their schools into equity advancing justice centered institutions

JSL Vol 25-N6 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2015-12-24 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement
